A Private Sphere Zizi A. Papacharissi, 2013-04-23 Online technologies excite the public imagination with narratives of democratization The Internet is a political medium borne of democracy but is it democratizing Late modern democracies are characterized by civic apathy public skepticism disillusionment with politics and general disinterest in conventional political process And yet public interest in blogging online news net based activism collaborative news filtering and online networking reveal an electorate that is not disinterested but rather fatigued with political conventions of the mainstream This book examines how online digital media shape and are shaped by contemporary democracies by addressing the following issues How do online technologies remake how we function as citizens in contemporary democracies What happens to our understanding of public and private as digitalized democracies converge technologies spaces and practices How do citizens of today understand and practice their civic responsibilities and how do they compare to citizens of the past How do discourses of globalization commercialization and convergence inform audience producer citizen consumer personal political public private roles individuals must take on Are resulting political behaviors atomized or collective Is there a public sphere anymore and if not what model of civic engagement expresses current tendencies and tensions best Students and scholars of media studies political science and critical theory will find this to be a fresh engagement with some of the most important questions facing democracies today

Sites of Discourse, Public and Private Spheres, Legal Culture Uwe Böker, Julie A. Hibbard, 2002 The present collection of essays grew out of a conference held in Dresden in December 2001 exploring the relationship between the public sphere and legal culture The conference was held in connection with the ongoing research undertaken by the Sonderforschungsbereich 537 Institutionalisation and Historical Change and in particular by the project Circulation of Legal Norms and Values in British Culture from 1688 to 1900 The conference papers include essays on the theory of the public sphere from a systematic and historical point of view by Gert Melville by Peter Uwe Hohendahl and by Jürgen Schläeger all of whom try to re evaluate and or improve upon Jürgen Habermas seminal contribution to the discussion of the emergence of modernism Alastair Mann s contribution investigates the situation in Scotland particularly censorship and the oath of allegiance Annette Pankratz focuses on the king s body as a site of the public sphere Heinz Joachim M llenbrock looks into the widespread culture of contention at the beginning of the eighteenth century and Eckhart Hellmuth considers the reform movement at the end of the century and the radical democrats insistence on the right to discuss the constitution Ian Bell who took part in the conference suggested the inclusion of part of the first chapter of his seminal study Literature and Crime in Augustan England 1991 Beth Swan Anna Christina Giovanopoulos and Christoph Houswitschka respectively analyse the ideologies of justice the interrelation between journalism and crime and the juridical evaluation of the crime of incest and its representation in public Greta Olson investigates keyholes as liminal spaces between the public and the private Juliet Wightman focuses on theatre and the bear pit Uwe Böker examines the court room and prison as public sites of
