Hixson,2000 First

Richard Pine, Eve Patten, 2008 oe The most terrible disaster that one group of human beings can inflict on another is war Wars cause misery on an indescribable scale Yet we go on doing it to one another generation after generation Why Warfare is a recurrent and universal characteristic of human existence The mythologies of practically all peoples abound in wars and the superhuman deeds of warriors and pre literate communities apparently delighted in the recital of stories about battles Since our species became literate a mere 5 000 years ago written history has mostly been the history of wars Thousands who knew war evidently sickened of it and dreamt of lasting peace expressing their vision in literature and art in philosophy and religion They imagined Utopias freed of martial ambition and bloodshed which harked back to the Golden Age of classical antiquity to the Christian vision of a paradise lost and to the Arcadia of Greek and Latin poetry so richly celebrated in the canvases of Claude and Poussin All these things bear eloquent testimony to the human longing for peace but they have not triumphed over our dreadfully powerful propensity to war from the Introduction by Anthony Stevens In this multi disciplinary collection of essays on the manifestations of war in poetry fiction drama music and documentaries scholars and practitioners from an international context describe the transformation of the war experience into chronicles of hope and despair from Herodotus up to the present day Arms at Rest Joan R. Challinor, Robert L. Beisner, 1987-02-04 This outstanding collection of essays is the product of a symposium on peacemaking and peacekeeping sponsored by the National Committee for the Bicentennial of the Treaty of Paris The original papers included in this volume were written by leading scholars from the United States Great Britain and Canada to assess themes related to the prerequisites and consequences of peace The emphasis is on peaceful outcomes and the preservation of peace rather than the causes of war and the writings reflect a penetrating awareness of the many facets of peacemaking and peacekeeping Included are thought provoking discussions on the impact of war and promise of peace on women the American perception of peace as an opportunity for profit and as a private political issue the avoidance of war and the possible obsolescence of war in our own era

Lomperis, John Clark Pratt, 1987 The decade following the American defeat in Vietnam has been filled with doubts about American politics and values confusion over the lessons of the war and anger about the physical and psychological suffering that occurred during the war as well as thereafter In the years since the U S withdrawal our need to make sense of Vietnam has prompted an outpouring of thinking and writing from scholarly reappraisals of American foreign policy to highly personal accounts of participants On the tenth anniversary of the final U S withdrawal the Asia Society sponsored a conference on the Vietnam experience in American literature at which leading writers critics publishers commentators and academics wrestled with this phenomenon Drawing on the synergy of this conference Timothy J Lomperis has produced an original work that focuses on the growing body of literature including novels personal accounts and oral histories which describes the experiences of American soldiers in Vietnam as well as the experience of veterans upon their return home     War & Trauma Images in Vietnam War Representations Christina Meyer, 2008
