Stephen Knight,2018-07-10 Australian crime fiction has grown from the country s origins as an 18th century English prison colony Early stories focused on escaped convicts becoming heroic bush rangers or how the system mistreated those who were wrongfully convicted Later came thrillers about wealthy free settlers and lawless gold seekers and urban crime fiction including Fergus Hume s 1887 international best seller The Mystery of a Hansom Cab set in Melbourne The 1980s saw a surge of private eye thrillers popular in a society skeptical of police Twenty first century authors have focused on policemen and increasingly policewomen and finally indigenous crime narratives The author explores in detail this rich but little known national subgenre Thirty Years of Lynching in the United States, 1889-1918 National Association for the Advancement of Colored People,1919 Lynchings in Mississippi Julius E. Thompson,2015-06-08 Lynching occurred more in Mississippi than in any other state During the 100 years after the Civil War almost one in every ten lynchings in the United States took place in Mississippi As in other Southern states these brutal murders were carried out primarily by white mobs against black victims The complicity of communities and courts ensured that few of the more than 500 lynchings in Mississippi resulted in criminal convictions This book studies lynching in Mississippi from the Civil War through the civil rights movement It examines how the crime unfolded in the state and assesses the large number of deaths the reasons the distribution by counties cities and rural locations and public responses to these crimes The final chapter covers lynching s legacy in the decades since 1965 an appendix offers a chronology Women and Capital Punishment in the United States David V. Baker, 2015-11-26 The history of the execution of women in the United States has largely been ignored and scholars have given scant attention to gender issues in capital punishment This historical analysis examines the social political and economic contexts in which the justice system has put women to death revealing a pattern of patriarchal domination and female subordination The book includes a discussion of condemned women granted executive clemency and judicial commutations an inquiry into women falsely convicted in potentially capital cases and a profile of the current female death row population The Woman in the Library Sulari Gentill, 2022-06-01 WINNER OF THE CRIME FICTION LOVER BEST INDIE NOVEL 2022 NOMINEE 2023 EDGAR AWARDS MARY HIGGINS CLARK AWARD a true master of the genre The Sydney Morning Herald Wickedly clever highly original and thoroughly entertaining I loved it Chris Hammer author of Scrublands and Treasure and Dirt a seriously fun read Dervla McTiernan author of The Ruin and The Murder Rule This elegantly constructed novel is intelligent funny and profound Who could ask for more Publishers Weekly And then there is a scream Ragged and terrified A beat of silence even after it stops until we all seem to realise that the Reading Room Rules no longer apply Hannah Tigone bestselling Australian crime author is crafting a new novel that begins in the Boston Public Library four strangers Winifred Cain Marigold and Whit are sitting at the same table when a bloodcurdling scream breaks the silence A woman has been murdered They are all suspects and as it turns out each character has their own secrets and motivations and one of them is a murderer While crafting this new thriller Hannah shares each chapter with her biggest fan and aspirational novelist Leo But Leo seems to know a lot about violence motive and how exactly to kill someone Perhaps he is not all that he seems The Woman in the Library is an unexpectedly twisty literary adventure that examines the complicated nature of friendship and shows that words can be the most treacherous weapons of all PRAISE FOR THE WOMAN IN THE LIBRARY This is a brilliant book about words The right and the wrong words How fact can become fiction fiction fantasy The Australian Women s Weekly Sulari Gentill pulls back the curtain on writers and their fixations revealing the duplicity the secret rages and the jealousy Everything no matter how dire is material in the end Jock Serong author of THE RULES OF BACKYARD CRICKET and THE BURNING ISLAND a page turner from beginning to end New York Journal of Books The Woman in the Library is devious tricky and unpredictable Gentill kept me guessing to the end Clever layered and highly original Karen Viggers author of THE LIGHTKEEPER S WIFE and THE ORCHARDIST S DAUGHTER An enormously clever book I lay awake thinking about it every night until I finished it Jack Heath author of HANGMAN and KILL YOUR BROTHER A vibrant twisty murder mystery told vividly and with great humour Kaaron Warren author of MISTIFACTION and THE GRIEF HOLE Great characters beautifully written Sulari Gentill delivers another murder mystery gem Tim Ayliffe author of
