that asks for design to be conceived in response to the needs and opportunities of a specific region although it is not inherently opposed to global potentials The theoretical debate is backed up by case studies of a range of projects from small scale designs using minimal technology to super sophisticated high tech solutions and from schemes that look to environmental comfort to ones concerned with issues of symbolism and memory It is out of this multiplicity of approaches that the general global lesson of Critical Regionalism as applied to tropical architecture is to be found THE PRINCE CLAUD FUND stimulates and supports activities in the field of culture and development by granting awards funding and producing publications and by financing and promoting networks and innovative cultural activities Support is given both to persons and to organizations in African Asian Latin American and Caribbean countries Re-examining the Division Into Interior and Exterior Sofia Gloria Veniard,1999 Places of Nostalgia William Bechhoefer,2002 Annual Report India.
