A Race For Redemption The Powells:

James Powell, Reminiscences H. Porter Smith, 1893 Gender, Race, and Class in Media Gail Dines, 2003 Gender Race and Class in Media examines the mass media as economic and cultural institutions that shape our social identities Through analyses of popular mass media entertainment genres such as talk shows soap operas television sitcoms advertising and pornography students are invited to engage in critical mass media scholarship A comprehensive introductory section outlines the book's integrated approach to media studies which incorporates three distinct but related areas of investigation the political economy of production textual analysis and audience response The readings include a dozen new original essays edited for maximum accessibility The book provides A comprehensive critical introduction to Media Studies An analysis of race that is integrated into all chapters Articles on Cultural Studies that are accessible to undergraduates An extensive bibliography and section on media resources Expanded coverage of queer representations in mass media A new section on the violence debates A new section on the Internet Together with new section introductions these provide a comprehensive critical introduction to mass media studies The Farrakhan Factor Amy Alexander, 1998 Leading African American voices speak out about Louis Farrakhan the myth and the reality in the process of reexamining and redefining notions of black nationalism community and African American leadership Rhetorics of Display Lawrence J. Prelli, 2021-12-24 Groundbreaking case studies mapping the rhetoric inherent in acts of presentation and concealment Rhetorics of Display is a pathbreaking volume that brings together a distinguished group of scholars to assess an increasingly pervasive form of rhetorical activity Editor Lawrence J Prelli notes in his introduction that twenty first century citizens continually confront displays of information and images from the verbal images of speeches and literature to visual images of film and photography to exhibits in museums to the arrangement of our homes to the merchandising of consumer goods The volume provides an integrated comprehensive study of the processes of selecting what to reveal and what to conceal that together constitute the rhetorics of display Surveying major historical transformations in the relationship between rhetoric and display this book also identifies the leading themes in relevant scholarship of the past three decades Seventeen case studies canvass a representative and diverse range of displays from body piercing to a civil rights memorial to a Titanic exhibition to imagery found in gambling casinos and examine the ways that phenomena persons places events identities communities and cultures are exhibited before audiences Collectively the contributors shed light on rhetorics that are nearly ubiquitous in contemporary communication and culture The Common Sense Conception of the Race Problem Raphael Philemon Powell, Raphael Powell Powell, 1927 A Man of Bad Reputation Drew A. Swanson, 2023-08-29 Five years after the Civil War North Carolina Republican state senator John W Stephens was found murdered inside the Caswell County Courthouse Stephens fought for the rights of freedpeople and his killing by the Ku Klux Klan ultimately led to insurrection Governor William W Holden's impeachment and the early unwinding of Reconstruction in North Carolina In recounting Stephens's murder the subsequent investigation and court proceedings and the long delayed confessions that revealed what actually happened at the courthouse in 1870 Drew A Swanson tells a story of race politics and social power shaped by violence and profit The struggle for dominance in Reconstruction era rural North Carolina Swanson argues was an economic and ecological transformation Arson beating and murder became tools to control people and landscapes and the ramifications of this violence continued long afterward The failure to prosecute anyone for decades after John Stephens s assassination left behind a vacuum as each side shaped its own memory of Stephens and his murder The malleability of and contested storytelling around Stephens s legacy presents a window into the struggle to control the future of the South

Race Rules Michael Eric Dyson,1997 A noted African American intellectual uses examples from the Black community to trace racism in American politics media society and culture criticizing the hypocrisy of white liberals and whites myths of Black males

A Race for Redemption Serenity King,2013-08-31 A powerful conglomerate Powell Industries has entered the world of stock car racing It isn t too risky an endeavor since the CEOs daughter s favorite things are driving fast and fast cars As beautiful as she is driven Tracey Powell is one of the most talented drivers on the circuit However a string of wrecks has caused her father to make a change Now her former trainer is driving the Powell industries car Determined to reclaim her place behind the wheel Tracey battles her way back Now Tracey s not only looking to be the first African American woman to bring home the trophy she s also looking for Redemption Shane Westbrook has been the reigning champion five years running His life is grand as a result He has everything money respect and all the women he could want The trouble is that he doesn t want just any woman He wants the one woman who walked away Tracey With the last two races coming up he knows Tracey is thinking about winning The race is on the prize has yet to be determined

Enoch Powell Robert Shepherd,1996 In this biography Robert Shepherd puts the life and work of Enoch Powell in a new political philosophical and emotional perspective The book draws on interviews with Powell and on a wealth of new research

Newsweek ,2007 Adam Clayton Powell, Jr Charles V. Hamilton,1992 This book offers a sympathetic and judicious portrait of Adam Clayton Powell 1908 1972 the flamboyant reverend and unapologetically arrogant yet morally principled champion of civil rights This biography effectively chronicles Senator Powell s rise and fall

King of the Cats Wil Haygood,1994 Born to a legacy of elite black Baptist ministry Powell 1908 72 stood as the New Negro whose triumphs over racial discrimination moved some to call him Mr Civil Rights To others the longtime Harlem congressman was either a prodigal son or merely unpredictable intemperate enigmatic and dangerous Library Journal Photos

A Long Dark Night J. Michael Martinez,2016-04-14 For a brief time following the end of the U S Civil War American political leaders had an opportunity slim to be sure but not beyond the realm of possibility to remake society so that black Americans and other persons of color could enjoy equal opportunity in civil and political life It was not to be With each passing year after the war and especially after Reconstruction ended during the 1870s American society witnessed the evolution of a new white republic as national leaders abandoned the promise of Reconstruction and justified their racial biases based on political economic social and religious values that supplanted the old North South slavery abolitionist schism of the antebellum era A Long Dark Night provides a sweeping history of this too often overlooked period of African American history that followed the collapse of Reconstruction from the beginnings of legal segregation through the end of World War II Michael J Martinez argues that the 1880s ushered in the dark night of the American Negro a night so dark and so long that the better part of a century would elapse before sunlight broke through Combining both a top down perspective on crucial political issues and public policy decisions as well as a bottom up discussion of the lives of black and white Americans between the 1880s and the 1940s A Long Dark Night will be of interest to all readers seeking to better understand this crucial era that continues to resonate throughout American life today

Democratic Justice Brad Snyder, 2022-08-23 The definitive biography of Felix Frankfurter Supreme Court justice and champion of twentieth century American liberal democracy The conventional wisdom about Felix Frankfurter Harvard law professor and Supreme Court justice is that he struggled to fill the seat once held by Oliver Wendell Holmes Scholars have portrayed Frankfurter as a judicial failure a liberal lawyer turned conservative justice and the Warren Court s principal villain And yet none of these characterizations rings true A pro government pro civil rights liberal who rejected shifting political labels Frankfurter advocated for judicial restraint he believed that people should seek change not from the courts but through the democratic political process Indeed he knew American presidents from Theodore Roosevelt to Lyndon Johnson advised Franklin Roosevelt and inspired his students and law clerks to enter government service Organized around presidential administrations and major political and world events this definitive biography chronicles Frankfurter s impact on American life As a young government lawyer he befriended Theodore Roosevelt Louis Brandeis and Holmes As a Harvard law professor he earned fame as a civil libertarian Zionist and New Deal power broker As a justice he hired the first African American law clerk and helped the Court achieve unanimity in outlawing racially segregated schools in Brown v Board of Education In this sweeping narrative Brad Snyder offers a full and fascinating portrait of the remarkable life and legacy of a long misunderstood American figure This is the biography of an Austrian Jewish immigrant who arrived in the United States at age eleven speaking not a word of English who by age twenty six befriended former president Theodore Roosevelt and who by age fifty was one of Franklin Roosevelt s most trusted advisers It is the story of a man devoted to democratic ideals a natural orator and often overbearing justice whose passion allowed him to amass highly influential friends and helped create the liberal establishment
