in the Sun is a play by Lorraine Hansberry that debuted on Broadway in 1959. The title comes from the poem Harlem also known as A Dream Deferred by Langston Hughes. The story tells of a black family's experiences in the Washington Park Subdivision of Chicago's Woodlawn neighborhood as they attempt to better themselves with an insurance payout following the death of the father. The New York Drama Critics Circle named it the best play of 1959. Walter and Ruth Younger, their son Travis along with Walter's mother Lena, Mama, and Walter's sister Beneatha live in poverty in a dilapidated one-bedroom apartment on Chicago's south side. Walter is barely making a living as a limousine driver. Though Ruth is content with their lot, Walter is not and desperately wishes to become wealthy. His plan is to invest in a liquor store in partnership with Willy and Bobo, street-smart acquaintances of Walter's. At the beginning of the play, Walter and Beneatha's father has recently died, and Mama is waiting for a life insurance check for 10,000. Walter has a sense of entitlement to the money, but Mama has religious objections to alcohol, and Beneatha has to remind him it is Mama's call how to spend it. Eventually, Mama puts some of the money down on a new house, choosing an all-white neighborhood over a black one for the practical reason that it happens to be much cheaper. Later, she relents and gives the rest of the money to Walter to invest, with the provision that he reserve 3,000 for Beneatha's education. Walter passes the money on to Willy's naive sidekick Bobo, who gives it to Willy, who absconds with it, depriving Walter and Beneatha of their dreams, though not the Youngers of their new home. Meanwhile, Karl Lindner, a white representative of the neighborhood they plan to move to, makes a generous offer to buy them out. He wishes to avoid neighborhood tensions over interracial population, which, to the three women's horror, Walter prepares to accept as a solution to their financial setback. Lena says that while money was something they try to work for, they should never take it if it was a person's way of telling them they weren't fit to walk the same earth as them. "A Raisin in the Sun". Is working hard enough to achieve one's American Dream? Kathrin Unglaub, 2016-04-12. Seminar paper from the year 2014 in the subject American Studies Literature grade 1.7 University of Duisburg-Essen course A Survey of American Literature language English abstract This term paper deals with the play A Raisin in the Sun and how the concept of the American Dream appears in the play. It will be discussed if working hard is enough to reach one's American Dream. The play is written by Lorraine Hansberry and published in 1958. It takes place in the south of Chicago where the Younger family lives and consists of five people from three different generations. Head of the family is Lena, who is mostly called Mama. Right after her, we got her son Walter Lee, who will be presented in the main part of this term paper. Besides there is Walter's wife Ruth and their son Travis. The last member of the Youngers is Walter's sister Beneatha. Mama embodies the first generation and is quite traditional. Ruth, Walter, and Bennie represent the second generation, whereas Travis is the only child in the third generation. The family has been living in America in the fifth generation and has got African roots. It can be said though that Walter, Bennie, Ruth, and Travis are less traditional than Mama and identify with the American way of life. The whole family shares a small apartment in a ghetto, and living together is difficult as everybody has got his or her own desire. Dream and point of view about certain topics Especially Walter Lee expects a lot from life and the reader sympathizes with him Misunderstood by his family Walter wants to live a better life and represents the concept of the American Dream of a person wanting to rise from rags to riches Walter dreams of an office job and really dislikes being a chauffeur for a white person He wants his son to go to the best schools and to get the best education as possible Furthermore he also wants to spoil his wife and get himself a nice car But why does he fail Why does nobody in his family support his idea of raising an own business namely opening a liquor store Beneatha is not even surprised about Walter s failure These questions shall be answered in the main part of this paper Moreover I quickly want to present the concept of the American Dream especially focusing on the Dream of Upward Mobility
