Another Kind Waste Chinese Zhang:

Handbook of Protest and Resistance in China Teresa Wright, 2019 Featuring contributions from top scholars and emerging stars in the field the Handbook of Protest and Resistance in China captures the complexity of protest and dissent in contemporary China while simultaneously exploring a number of unifying themes Examining how when and why individuals and groups have engaged in contentious acts and how the targets of their complaints have responded the volume sheds light on the stability of China's existing political system and its likely future trajectory International Students' Multilingual Literacy Practices Peter I. De Costa, Wendy Li, Jongbong Lee, 2022-08-04 This book presents the results of research that focused on international students receiving writing instruction on a US university campus It explores how the students developed their foreign student identities and their own ways of grappling with the unique issues they encountered as they worked to improve their academic literacy skills The book extends the theoretical horizons of language socialization research by integrating insights from other disciplinary frameworks such as a translingual approach multilingual literacies and writing center theory to explore international students university experiences By adopting these varied lenses the book provides readers with a more holistic integrative and ecological understanding of students language and literacy development The authors also investigate how a translingual pedagogy informs language instructors and literacy instructors in facilitating multilingual students academic literacy development across a variety of codes registers genres modes and media
