Anne Truitt Perception And Reflection:

Anne Truitt Kristen Hileman, Anne Truitt, James Sampson Meyer, 2009 Anne Truitt an artist based in Washington D C for most of her career remains an under recognized force in art post 1960 which has been dominated by artists like Donald Judd and Ellsworth Kelly who have strongly influenced the movement now known as Minimalism Part of this lack of recognition stems from the fact that Truitt pursued a staunchly independent course in her art not only did she take a different path from the Color Field artists often associated with Washington D C but she created reduced geometric abstraction that deviated from the approaches of Minimalist artists in some significant ways For example her highly nuanced use of colour veered dramatically from primary hues and the titles of many of her works evoked places and events that were important to her suggesting a complex network of references beyond and yet somehow contained by the sculpture This volume and the accompanying exhibition will form an important part of the re evaluation of Truitt s art due to the scope of work which it presents A wide range of three dimensional works will be presented to showcase Truitt s exploration of colour scale and proportion Examples of two dimensional series on canvas in which the artist investigated the cusp of visibility as well as the relationships between painting and sculpture join 24 works on paper some of which date to the year that Truitt first arrived at her radical reduction of form and others that represent a three year period during the 1960 s from which there are almost no extant sculptures At the heart of this volume are colour plates of the columnar sculptures that became the hallmark of Truitt s profoundly focused practice and that made her so significant to the development of minimal abstraction Whilst Truitt s work has featured as part of larger surveys of Minimalism as well as in Truitt s own artist s journals Daybook 1984 Turn 1987 and Prospect 1996 it has never before been the subject of a complete monographic survey For this reason alone publication of Anne Truitt Perception and Reflection in 2009 will be a major event in itself and one that will significantly increase our understanding of post 1960 s art AUTHOR Kristen Hileman the organizing curator of the exhibition is associate curator the Hirshhorn Museum and Sculpture Garden where she recently curated The Cinema Effect Illusion Reality and the Moving Image Part II Realisms 2008 and has worked with such artists as John Baldessari Hiroshi Sugimoto and Wolfgang Tillmans James Meyer is Winship Distinguished Associate Professor of Art History at Emory University and the author of Minimalism Art Polemics in the Sixties Yale 2001 and Themes Movements Minimalism Phaidon 2000 He organised the Anne Truitt exhibition at the Michael C Carlos Museum Emory University in 2004 He also co authored Howard Hodgkin with Nicholas Serota Tate Britain 2006 150 colour 12 b w illustrations Anne Truitt: Perception and Reflection ,2009

Anne Truitt Anne Truitt, 2009 Modern Women: Women Artists at The Museum of Modern Art Alexandra Schwartz, 2010 This text examines the collection of feminist art in the Museum of Modern Art It features essays presenting a range of generational and cultural perspectives Lifework Moran Sheleg, 2024-07-23 Following the critical scepticism surrounding the notion of the self as a singular entity during the 1960s many artists and writers sought to test the apparent problem posed by autobiography as both a traditional genre and as a way of working Considering the consequent emergence of autotheory Lifework traces this shift in artistic and literary production during the late twentieth century and beyond examining a set of diverse practices that mine the line between what it is to make art and what it is to live life The book's chapters connect a variety of artistic strategies that cut across medium geography and time uncovering how the historical marginalisation of first person experience has taken on larger social cultural and political implications in the contemporary moment and how the work of living might still relate to the work of art
