(HVAC) Applications

The Air Conditioning Contractors of America Educational Institute (ACCAs EI Standards Task Team (STT)) develops standards as an American National Standards Institute (ANSI) accredited standards developer (SDS). ACCA develops voluntary standards as outlined in the ACCA Essential Requirements and the ANSI Essential Requirements. ACCA standards are developed by diverse groups of industry volunteers in a climate of openness, consensus building, and lack of discrimination (e.g., committee/group/team balanced). Essential requirements, standard activities and documentation can be found in the standards portion of the ACCA website at www.acca.org. Questions, suggestions, and proposed revisions to the standard can be addressed to the attention of the Standards Task Team, ACCA, 1300 Broadrock Place, Suite 200, Arlington, VA 22204.

ACCA Standards are issued as consensus-based, first-class documents. All standards must be able to pass the consensus check. Your organization's input to the ACCA Standards Task Team is the most important contribution you can make to the industry. Please contact the ACCA Standards Task Team at standards@acca.org or call 800-ACC4000 for more information.
