Sailor and Beachcomber Confessions of a life at sea, in Australia, and amid the islands of the Pacific Arnold Safroni-Middleton, 2019-05-09 Excerpt In the following chapters wherein I have endeavoured to write down my experiences at sea in Australia and on the South Sea Islands I have not gone beyond the first four or five years of my life abroad but later on I hope to do so if I get the chance I have made no attempt to moralise in my book and if I appear to have been guilty of doing so be assured it was a spasm of the intellect and quite forgotten all about a few minutes after I had written it down All I have attempted in this book is to endeavour to tell exactly my experiences as they occurred in my travels in many lands also I have wished to reveal a little of the usual experiences the ups and downs that youths pass through when they go to sea and are left completely on their own in other lands seeking to see the world often ambitious to find a fortune but generally succeeding in only gathering heaps of grim experiences Unfortunately no one can buy his experience first and so the general rule of green fortune seekers overseas is to end in failure and to be honest I was no exception to the rule Nevertheless my loss of all that might have been was amply compensated by the rough brave men whom I met seafarers and otherwise who revealed to me the best side of humanity and the value of good comradeship devil may care fellows with hearts that were blazing hearth fires of welcome in the coldest days of adversity of long ago ere I crammed up with experience and nothing much else down in the stokehold of a tramp steamer returned across the ocean to my native land eventually to get the roving fever and again go seaward
