jargon free and concise. This is a very readable, thorough and practical book of use to young people, parents and in particular to school staff in preventing and dealing with bullying.

Counselling Children and Young People CCYP the authors drive home the strong message that bullying should never be accepted and how it can be life threatening. There is clear evidence that the training is based on current research. I found the format innovative with the excellent add on of being able to download PowerPoint training slides from the publisher's website.

Emotional and Behavioural Difficulties Highly readable and practical, this is a book that provides details of specific ways in which members of the school community can collaborate to reduce the incidence of bullying in their school.

Teacher This is a clearly written and well designed resource. It is likely to be of value to anyone wishing to develop active anti bullying policies in schools and is designed for use as a staff development tool over a period of time but is also focused on the needs of parents, children and young people themselves. It provides some excellent guidance on writing an anti bullying policy, a useful overview of practical strategies to prevent and counter bullying, helpful advice for parents of children who are being bullied or children who are involved in bullying others.

SENCO Update I like the book's message. Bullying is an activity rather than a stereotypical role. It's no blame approach aims to modify behaviour to avoid provoking a cycle of escalating violence.

The Psychologist This excellent book begins by dispelling some myths, hoping to offer schools constructive ways to tackle this deep seated problem. Clear courses of action are set out, including some for parents whose children are bullying others and there are photocopiable training resources in the appendices.

TES Special Needs This is a carefully considered and road tested book that could be an invaluable resource to staff seeking to develop their school's response to bullying.

Journal of In Service Education Dealing with Bullying in Schools is a very readable book and should be available in every school in the country. What the book emphasizes is that bullying is everyone's problem, not merely teacher. This includes the Head of the school, parents and everyone who is part of the community within the school.

Dr L F Lowenstein Educational Clinical and Forensic Psychological Consultant. The book is strong on practical information including handouts and overhead projector sheets for training staff, students and parents.
