Assessing Writers Knowledge And Processes Of Composing Writing Research:

Assessing Writers' Knowledge and Processes of Composing Lester Faigley, 1985 This volume offers a new perspective on the evaluation of writing The first half of the volume reviews research on composing and examines existing methods of evaluating writing The second half sets some limitations in assessing changes in composing processes describes some methods researchers in other areas have used to investigate cognitive processes and outlines a model of writers knowledge that can lead to comprehensive assessments of writing skills Assessing Writers' Knowledge and Processes of Composing

, 1985 Landmark Essays on Writing Process Sondra Perl, 1994 First Published in 1995 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor

Francis an informa company Contemporary Composition Studies Edith Babin, Kimberly Harrison, 1999-12-30

Composition studies is a rapidly growing and constantly changing field At present however graduate students new to the field and writing teachers who want to make new connections between theory and practice have little choice of current reference works that define key terms in composition studies and provide information about the scholars and researchers who have shaped and are shaping the discipline This book supplies this information in an easily accessible format and places both scholars and terms in the context of the field s development Included are alphabetically arranged entries for 108 individuals who have developed the field and 128 terms central to the discipline The first part of the book provides entries for leaders in composition studies Each entry identifies the areas in which the scholar has contributed most influentially to the field and provides both a chronological overview of the person s contributions and a bibliography of representative works The second part includes entries for terms that are problematic both for newcomers and for those already familiar with the discipline The entries for the terms show how the disciplinary context has shaped the ways in which they have been used The entries also indicate how established thinkers in composition studies and other disciplines have explained or defined the terms provide examples of the terms in context and list scholars often associated with them An appendix includes entries for scholars from other disciplines who have contributed to the field Through the Models of Writing D. Alamargot, L.

Chanquoy, 2012-12-06 This book provides both young and senior scientists with a comparative view of current theoretical models of text production Models are clearly situated in their historical context scrutinized in their further evolution with a fine grained observation of differences between models Very complete and informative to read this book will be useful to people working in teaching of writing or studying this specific human activity Speaking About Writing Alain

Coulon, 1994-04-29 This volume makes a powerful case for the analysis of the spoken word as a source of data to study writing The contributors focus on issues involved in the collection analysis and interpretation of data Their approaches go beyond simple quantitative qualitative differences examining the very underpinnings of the various assumptions of distinct methodologies Divided into four major areas of inquiry the book looks at different aspects of conducting think aloud protocol analysis retrospective accounts discourse analysis and interviews in the field Documentation Abstracts , 1985

Designing Writing Tasks for the Assessment of Writing Leo Ruth, Sandra Murphy, 1988 This volume reports the results of a series of investigations of the properties of writing tasks their authors intentions and the responses that these tasks evoked in student writers and teacher raters The volume explains how both student writers and teacher raters in their reading of the same topic text can arrive at different meanings The investigations undertaken led the authors to make a number of recommendations about selecting subjects specifying audience and mode formulating instructions and wording the topic These recommendations are presented in non technical language in a comprehensive set of Guidelines for Designing Topics for Writing Assessments
