Peter McCawley, 2020-06-01 This publication is a history of the partnership between Indonesia and the Asian Development Bank (ADB). When Indonesia became a founding member of the bank in 1966 the country faced daunting challenges. In the five decades that passed both Indonesia and ADB have evolved in remarkable ways. Indonesia developed rapidly through the late 1990s yet faced a difficult time of adjustment after the Asian financial crisis of 1997-1998. The country has since resumed growth in the last decade. For its part ADB has widened its activities in Indonesia transforming from a project oriented bank into a broad based development institution. This effective partnership reflects Indonesia's success in working with the international community in the past 50 years. Liberalization, Growth, and the Asian Financial Crisis Mohamed
