Compelling and informative the 14 diverse biographies of this book give a heightened understanding of the evolution of what it meant to be black and American through more than three centuries of U.S. history

North Carolina Women Michele Gillespie, Sally G. McMillen, 2014 This first of two volumes on North Carolina women chronicles the influence and accomplishments of individual women from the pre Revolutionary period through the early 20th century They represent a range of social and economic backgrounds political stances areas of influence and geographical regions within the state Even though North Carolina remained mostly rural until well into the twentieth century and the lives of most women centered on farm family and church Gillespie and McMillen note that the state's people exhibited a progressive streak that positively influenced women Public funds were set aside to advance statewide education private efforts after the Civil War led to the founding of numerous black schools and colleges and in 1891 the General Assembly chartered the State Normal and Industrial School later UNC-G as one of the first publicly funded colleges for white women By the late 19th century as several essays in this volume reveal education played a pivotal role in the lives of many white and black women It inspired their activism and involvement in a world beyond their traditional domestic sphere

The Afro-American Woman Sharon Harley, Rosalyn Terborg-Penn, 1997 Civil rights activists educators writers artists and workers these are the women of The Afro American Woman Struggles and Images an excellent anthology of essays that provides a more accurate image of the Black woman and her place in history and in the cultural development of our society Originally published in 1978 The Afro American Woman includes essays that highlight historical experiences common to Black women The anthology also features essays that focus on early activists Anna J. Cooper Nannie Burroughs and Charlotta A. Bass This book is a long out of print valuable reference source It was the first written by Black academics which analyzed these women's experiences from a historical and Black nationalist perspective

Dark Thoughts Charles Lemert, 2013-10-18 In Dark Thoughts eminent sociologist Charles Lemert dares to say and explain what everyone already knows that the modern world was built on the need of white people to pretend they are not as dark as the next person Delving poignantly into the history and literature of domination Lemert retells key moments of the twentieth century by profiling figures like W E B DuBois Charlotte Perkins Gilman Anna Julia Cooper Nella Larson Malcolm X and Muhammad Ali In a rare and unflinching look at his own complicated history Lemert also explores his own racism his struggle with the suicide of his oldest son as well as growing up as the virtual son of a black mother and his life now as the real father of an African American daughter Dark Thoughts speaks to the most urgent social issues at the beginning of the twenty first century race relations multiculturalism and social justice
