Answer To The Pelagians I23 Works Of Saint Augustine:

Answer to the Pelagians Saint Augustine, Roland J. Teske, 1999 The four works printed in this volume reply to a series of problems which various Catholic monks of Africa and Gaul found with Augustine's doctrine of grace and predestination. They do not deal directly with Pelagianism but are clearly related to the anti-Pelagian works of Augustine in their discussions of the doctrines on grace and predestination. The monks who raised these questions however posed them as difficulties they faced in accepting these doctrines not as an overt desire to contradict Augustine and the Church as the heretics did. The first two works Grace and Free Choice and Rebuke and Grace respond to problems at Hadrumetum where a group of monks thought that Augustine's teaching on grace destroyed free choice and human merits and eliminated the possibility of anyone giving rebukes and exhortations. The second two works The Predestination of the Saints and The Gift of Perseverance reply to the letters of Prosper of Aquitaine and Hilary. They reported to Augustine the objections of various persons in monastic groups in Gaul who held that the beginning of faith and the initiative for salvation came from the human will not from God. These monks also rejected Augustine's doctrine that divine predestination and the grace of final perseverance are utterly gratuitous gifts of God. In his responses to the monks' concerns Augustine depends on Scripture to prove his points. He encourages his questioners to pray for understanding and to thank God for the understanding they have so far which is surely a free gift of God as he emphasizes grace and eternal life. Stricken by Sin, Cured by Christ Jesse Couenhoven, 2013-08-01 This book is a discussion of responsibility and blame focused and shaped by St Augustine's theology of sin and grace and the controversies that surround those topics. It critically appropriates ideas central to an influential and controversial figure and doctrine in conversation with expert readers of Augustine's recent philosophical treatments of free will and responsibility and a broad array of theological voices. Augustine's Problem Jeff Nicoll, 2016-06-03 Augustine's Problem provides a new approach to St Augustine's life and doctrine hypothesizing that his problem was not sexual addiction but sexual impotence. For Augustine the problem with sex was not the seductive nature of women but the unpredictability of desire which can induce an unwanted erection or fail to provide one when even the mind would choose to have sex. He extends his personal incapacity to a general impotence of the will: we can never without grace choose any good. Just as the impotent man cannot work on his impotence we cannot work on our salvation only God can make a difference and predestines a tiny elect. The disobedience of the Garden is transferred to the disobedience of the male member guaranteeing that the sin of Eden is transferred in conception as original sin. The most controversial elements of Augustine's theology are all linked to the theme of impotence as expressed in his writings from the Confessions to the anti-Pelagian works written at the end of his life. Newman and Justification T. L. Holtzen, 2024-01-09 Newman and Justification examines John Henry Newman's via media doctrine of the justifying presence in his Lectures on Justification. T. L. Holtzen contends that Newman put forth his via media doctrine of the justifying presence by employing a trinitarian grammar of divine inhabitation in which the Holy Spirit is the formal cause of justification as a solution to the Reformation debate over justification Newman sets his via media of justification between the extremes of justification by mere imputation in popular Protestantism and that of justification by works righteousness in English Arminianism and Romanism The word justification means both being declared and being made righteous because the eternal Word is spoken into the soul by the Holy Spirit in justification Newman identifies this with the gift of righteousness Romans 5 17 and calls it the doctrine of the justifying presence The justifying presence is an imparted righteousness in distinction from both the Protestant notion of imputed and Roman Catholic idea of inherent righteousness The justifying presence comes through the sacraments creates faith in the human soul and begins a renewal in good works all of which in different ways justify The divine inhabitation of the Holy Spirit in the soul is the formal cause of justification by causing a duplex iustitia of both Christ's imputed righteousness and by beginning an actual righteousness in renewal Newman's via media doctrine of the justifying presence has great ecumenical promise because it shows how the trinitarian grammar of justification necessarily causes renewal through divine inhabitation

Saint Augustine's Anti-Pelagian Works Philip Schaff, 2017-10-23 Where traditional Christianity has always affirmed that sin can only be atoned by the sacrifice of Christ the theory that the human will is able to earn salvation of its own accord was the basis of Pelagian thought Augustine in this series of works fought vehemently against such ways of thinking because he wanted to make people realize that Christ is the one and only way to find true salvation
