

AP Gov Unit 2 Study Guide (Part 2)

THE JUDICIAL BRANCH

Essential Question: How do the nation's courts compete and cooperate with the other branches to settle legal controversies and to shape public policy?

Foundational Documents/Court Cases:

-Article III of the US Constitution:

- Establishes the supreme court as judicial power of US
- Says Congress can "ordain and establish" other inferior courts

-Federalist #78

- Argues how and for how long justices will be appointed and what kind of power the judicial branch should have
- Hamilton says all appointed judges shall hold offices during good behavior (life)
 - Lifetime appointments
 - necessity to keep judicial branch as independent as possible
- Federal judges should have judicial review; everything unconstitutional is void
 - Does not make judicial branch more powerful than legislative; the power of the people is superior
 - Balances and checks legislative branch

-Marbury v. Madison (1803)

- Background: President Adams in his last days packed the federal judiciary w/ federalist judges who would frustrate incoming Jefferson
 - Some commissions were not delivered--> upset William Marbury

- Marbury (judge who did not receive his commission) sued Madison and the supreme court to get his commission via a writ of mandamus (court order for an official to do what they're legally required to do) for Madison to deliver the commission
- Constitutional Principle: the jurisdiction (scope of power court exercises over different kinds of cases) clauses in Article III of the Constitution
- Decision: Marbury had the legal right to his commission, and the writ of mandamus is the correct way to get it, but the court DOES NOT have the authority to grant the writ of mandamus
 - Article III does not say anything ab the court issuing writ of mandamus
- Article 13 of Judiciary act conflicted with Article III of Constitution--> article 13 is unconstitutional and therefore null and void
- Importance: Marshall invested Supreme Court with power of judicial review; they are the final interpreter of the Constitution

Key Principles/Concepts:

-Interactions with the Executive Branch:

- Executive can check judicial through legislative appointments
- Has the ability to not enforce the decision of the court

-Interactions with the Legislative Branch

- Legislators can pass laws that modify the impact of prior decisions
- Congress can check judicial through Constitutional amendments

taking the actual test s You should practice under the same time constraints as well Stay calm and pace yourself After simulating the test only a couple of times you will boost your chances of doing well and you will be able to sit down for the actual test much more confidently Know the directions and format for each section of the exam Familiarizing yourself with the directions and format of the different test sections will not only save you time but will also ensure that you are familiar enough with the AP exam to avoid nervousness and the mistakes caused by being nervous Work on the easier questions first If you find yourself working too long on one question make a mark next to it in your test booklet and continue After you have answered all of the questions that you can go back to the ones you have skipped Use the process of elimination when you are unsure of an answer If you can eliminate three of the answer choices you have given yourself a fifty fifty chance of getting the item correct since there will only be two choices left from which to make a guess If you cannot eliminate at least three of the answer choices you may choose not to guess as you will be penalized one quarter of a point for every incorrect answer Questions not answered will not be counted Be sure that you are marking your answer in the circle that corresponds to the number of the question in the test booklet Since the multiple choice section is graded by machine marking the wrong answer will throw off your score
