Excerpt from Anna the Adventuress The terror faded from her eyes A faint gleam of returning colour gave her at once a more natural appearance So far as the eye could reach the white level road with its fringe of elm trees was empty Away off in the fields the blue smocked peasants bent still at their toil They had heard nothing seen nothing A few more minutes and she was safe About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Anna the Adventuress E. The girl paused and steadied herself for a moment against a field gate Her breath came fast in little sobbing pants Her dainty shoes were soiled with dust and there was a great tear in her skirt Very slowly very fearfully she turned her head Her cheeks were the colour of chalk her eyes were filled with terror If a cart were coming or those labourers in the field had heard escape was impossible The terror faded from her eyes A faint gleam of returning colour gave her at once a more natural appearance So far as the eye could reach the white level road with its fringe of elm trees was empty Away off in the fields the blue smocked peasants bent still at their toil
