Annexation of the Hawaiian Islands (Classic Reprint) William Sulzer, 2018-02-09 Excerpt from Annexation of the Hawaiian Islands Mr Speaker Let me say at the very beginning of my remarks that it is a matter of great personal regret to me that from sincere Convictions I am compelled to differ on this momentous question of the annexation of the Hawaiian Islands With Some of my Deme cratic colleagues for whose judgment and Opinions I have great respect I had indulged the hope that on this question we would stand as a unit in favor of the policy of annexation About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections

Pettigrew, 2016-10-13 Excerpt from Annexation of the Hawaiian Islands Speech of Hon Richard F Pettigrew of South Dakota in the Senate of the United States June 22 and 23 1898 It is this cry of manifest destiny which causes the guns of Great Britain to echo daily around the world and excuses the massacre and assassination of the weaker people of the earth Her Operations in Africa she justifies by this specious plea During the last seven years she has killed twenty or thirty thousand of the people of Africa bombarded towns filled with women and children And herself has lost in this unequal contest but seven men all this in the name of manifest destiny So colonies have been planted by the nations of Europe They have gone forth to conquer the weaker nations of the world But the result upon themselves has not been such as to induce us to emulate their example About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work. Annexation of the Hawaiian Islands John Wesley Gaines, 2016-08-30 Excerpt from Annexation of the Hawaiian Islands Speech of Hon John W Gaines of Tennessee in the House of Representatives Wednesday June 15 1898 Mr Speaker It is admitted by the champions of annexation that if we acquire the Hawaiian Islands we must not only increase our Navy to protect us as we now are but that we must further increase it to defend these islands Of course if our Navy is not already equal to the increasing needs of the Government it must be made and kept so What does an increased Navy mean Does it mean reduced or increased taxation If taxes must be increased why should we cut off by annexation the sources of taxation If we begin now the policy of colonization will we not as it Were climb out upon the end of the tariff limb and saw it off behind us Will we not shut off by annexing the very sources of revenue that we now have with which to pay for an increased Navy to protect our existing States and Territories About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Hawaiian Independence (Not Annexation), Our Policy Dorman Bridgman Eaton, 2018-09-26 Excerpt from Hawaiian Independence Not Annexation Our Policy A Domestic Industry Endangered Not only has the independence of the Islands been our policy not only was the United States to exercise no sinister influence over them but Mr Webster especially states that we were not to overawe the proceedings of its lawful government by the menace or the actual application of superior military force About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Again in Hawaii Julius Aubeineau Palmer, 1895 Annexation of Hawaiian Islands Edgar Dean Crumpacker, 2017-02-06 Excerpt from Annexation of Hawaiian Islands Speech of Hon E D Crumpacker of Indiana in the House of Representatives Tuesday June 14 1898 What becomes of the policy advanced by annexationists that the Government can permanently control the islands by a system fitted to their situation capacity and development It is not the policy of the Government to admit any class of people into the political household that can not intelligently and helpfully participate in free government and profit by its privileges I confess that I have some sentiment upon the question of citizenship I love to look upon my fellow citizen with the consciousness that however humble his station in life he is the equal before the law of the greatest in the land and that from his loins may spring a posterity that will bless humanity and glorify republican institutions A race that does not possess these splendid possibilities must lower the dignity of our citizenship The marvelous growth and uneven development of the country are largely responsible for present conditions and many of our most troublesome questions will be removed by time Our interests will be more equitably adjusted and grow into more harmonious relations with further development The standard of life in all parts of the country must be measured according to a common scale and we have now as great a diversification of climate resource and tendency as can be successfully trained together under one political organization The Temperate Zone by inexorable law has always contained and always will contain the highest intelligence of the world and all that is most helpful in civilized life The tropical climate stimulates growth and impedes progress in the individual and About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Against the Annexation of the Hawaiian Islands: Speech of Hon. John L. Mitchell, of Wisconsin, in the Senate of the United States, Tuesday, June 21, 1898

John L. Mitchell, 2018-02-04 Excerpt from Against the Annexation of the Hawaiian Islands Speech of Hon John L Mitchell of Wisconsin in the Senate of the United States Tuesday June 21 1898 Annexation might help Hawaii itself But our duty requires us to look at this question from a purely selfish standpoint Unless this measure is clearly to the advantage of the United States we must cast it out While annexation ought not to be permitted without a full and free expression on the part of the Hawaiians still it is not material whether the Hawaiian population in mass or in any proportion desire annexation or not It is for them to show a clean bill of political health as a condition precedent to admission The men in the bowels of the wooden horse were anxious to enter Troy but they proved undesirable citizens after they were let in Are we bound to admit to our domestic circle every wanderer who raps at our door Before we enter into a business partnership we scrutinize Before entering into a political partnership we should be more careful still For the bonds are more difficult to dissolve We owe the Hawaiians much In times past they have sent us bananas and we have returned them axes and gunpowder They have sent us pineapples and we have returned them muskets mosquitoes and the measles There is an uncomfortable balance against us but to demand annexation to square accounts is asking too much About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
