Answering Back Girls Boys And Feminism In Schools:

Answering Back Jill Blackmore, Jane Kenway, Leonie Rennie, Sue Willis, 2004-01-14 Answering Back exposes the volatility of gender reform in many different schools and classrooms. It tells stories in close up and from below allowing everyone to talk anxious boys, naughty girls, cantankerous teachers, pontificating principals and feisty feminists. This book challenges many sacred ideas about gender reform in schools and will surprise and unsettle teachers and researchers. It draws on a deep knowledge of gender issues in schools and of feminist theories, policies and practices. It is compelling and provocative reading at the leading edge. Leaders in Gender and Education Marcus B. Weaver-Hightower, Christine Skelton, 2013-09-04

Gender studies are a key lens through which education has been examined in the past forty years, having become an accepted and popular subfield in educational foundations studies. Moreover, scholars in gender and education have made tremendous contributions well beyond education, influencing humanities and social sciences scholars across the academy. Hearing the stories of these scholars, their development, education, important works and thoughts on the future, offers unique insights into the genesis and growth of the field and gives new scholars an overview of advances made. Leaders in Gender and Education: Intellectual Self-Portraits does just that, showing the history of gender and education through the eyes of 16 of its leaders. By recounting their experiences and scholarly work, they trace the development of feminist and profeminist research on girls, on boys and on the issues shaping both gender and education, issues like race, sexuality, neoliberalism, globalization and more. Importantly, the volume has a global focus, including scholars from the United States, Canada, the United Kingdom and Australia. This diversity gives readers a broad sense of the progress of gender scholarship in education around the world. Each essay provides students and researchers alike with not only background on the 16 scholars included but also the lists of major works chosen by contributors themselves, directing readers to some of the most important scholarship on gender and education. Taken together, further the contributors' thoughts on the future of the field, provide glimpses of productive directions for studies of gender and education. Boys and Their Schooling John Whelen, 2011-04-28 Pt 1 Boys in the frame pt 2 That unstable construct

ATTITUDES TOWARDS MATHEMATICS AND MATHEMATICAL ACHIEVEMENT IN SECONDARY SCHOOLS IN ENGLAND: EXPLORING THE ROLE OF SOCIAL CLASS, GENDER AND ETHNICITY

Jeffery Quaye, 2020-02-02 This book is essential reading in the sociology of education, social policy and mathematics education. It is for teachers, principals, superintendents, school leaders and policymakers. For too long, many children have not achieved their best potential in mathematics at both primary and secondary schools. Although scholarly interest in students' attitudes towards mathematics and achievement in mathematics has increased, there is scant research which explores the explanatory potential of Bourdieu's trilogy of habitus, cultural capital and social field in investigating students' attitudes towards mathematics. The content is based on a rich empirical study of 1106 students aged 14-16 and gives a detailed account drawing on both quantitative and qualitative data to show the intersection of social class, gender and ethnicity on students aspiration attitudes towards mathematics and mathematical achievement at GCSE in secondary schools in England

Governing the Child in the New Millennium Kenneth Hultqvist, Gunilla Dahlberg, 2013-01-11 The contributors and editors of this volume begin from the assumption that the changes wrought by globalization compel us to reflect upon the status of the child and childhood at the end of the 20th century Their essays consider what techniques and technologies are used to govern the child what role the family plays what is global and what is culturally specific in the changes and how the subject is constructed and construed

Negotiating Masculinities and Bodies in Schools Kevin G. Davison, 2007 Explores gender and the body in relation to the postmodern condition challenging the stability of modernist understandings of gender and making a case for viewing gender as a pedagogical tool rather than as a threat Articulations of Gender in Public School Reform Elisabeth Legare Woody,2001 Challenging Violence in Schools Martin Mills,2001 This book explores the relationship between violence and masculinity within schools There is a clear need to explore this relationship A substantial amount of evidence exists which demonstrates how boys are the major perpetrators of violence in schools from extreme acts of violence such as school shootings in the US to more common forms of schoolyard bullying and that both girls and boys are their victims The book suggests that violence has been masculinized in such a way that boys often perpetrate violence as a means of demonstrating their perception of what counts as a valued form of masculinity This masculinization of violence has often meant that girls experience violence from boys who are seeking to demonstrate their superiority over girls and it has also meant that some boys often experience violence due to their non conformity to dominant images of masculinity In order to support these arguments the book draws on extensive interview data collected from boys and teachers who were involved in anti violence programmes in their schools Boys, Literacies, and Schooling Leonie Rowan,2002 Current debates about boys and schooling in many Western nations are increasingly characterised by a sense of crisis as government reports academic research and the day to day experiences of teachers combine to indicate that boys are consistently underperforming in literacy boys are continuing to opt out of English and humanities boys represent the majority of behaviour problems and counselling referrals boys receive a disproportionate amount of special education support This book responds to the complexity of the current debates associated with boys gender reform literacy and schooling by offering a clear map of the current context highlighting the strengths and weaknesses of the various competing solutions put forward and outlining a range of practical classroom interventions designed for dealing with the boys literacy crisis The authors consider the ways in which particular views of masculinity gender reform literacy technology and popular culture can either open up or close down new conceptualisations of what it means to be a boy and what it means to be literate Health Promotion International ,2000 Social Theory and Human Biotechnology Tim Owen,2009 The book is intended as a contribution towards metatheoretical development as part of the post postmodern return to sociological theory associated with Robert Sibeon 1996 1999 2004 2007 Derek Layder 1997 2004 2007 Nicos Mouzelis 1991 1993 1995 2007 Margaret Archer 1995 1998 and Owen 2006a 2006b 2007a 2007b in tandem with a study of some of the sociological and ethical implications of selected examples of human biotechnology The examples include the Human Genome Project and related areas of interest such as reproductive biotechnology the attempts to develop a biological sociology by writers of the embodied school and what Powell and Owen 2005 term the biomedical model The book is also intended to contribute towards building bridges between post modern metatheory and biological science Boletin Internacional de Bibliografia Sobre Educacion ,2002 Troubling Education Kevin K. Kumashiro,2000 New Zealand Journal of Educational Studies ,2004 Questioning Sociology George Pavlich,Myra J. Hird,2007 This eighteen chapter collection of original readings by leading Canadian scholars provides an introduction to sociological analysis by asking questions about concrete Canadian issues and linking them to fundamental sociological theories and problems of interest to contemporary sociologists. These analyses serve to introduce a critical approach to a variety of experiences as well as the theoretical debates within the discipline. Against the Odds Pat Thomson, 1999. The author considers how it is that equity and risk can call into question the ecology of the school and suggests that failing to follow a holistic pathway produces solutions that ultimately fail those we intend to assist. She looks briefly at schooling as a process of social production and reproduction before moving on to the notion of risk. She then establishes some principles for the development of school based programs that might make a difference then looks at some school culture and structure issues that might assist. Academic's Support Kit: Writing for publication Rebecca Boden, 2005.
