Death and Disaster Paul Alexander, 1994 Death is where this story begins disaster is what follows In 1987 Andy Warhol overcame his deep fear of hospitalization to seek treatment for a gallbladder ailment he'd neglected for fourteen years I'm not gonna make it he said to his personal physician who assured him that the surgery he faced was routine The operation was both routine and successful but less than twenty four hours later Warhol was dead The shocking news set off a blizzard of activity Warhol's East Side townhouse was sealed his executor took charge lawyers were called in canvases were moved to secret warehouse some never to be seen again security guards were posted at the Factory The world that Andy Warhol had carefully constructed over three decades was about to go public A brilliant collector compulsive shopper and prolific worker Warhol left vast holdings that included antique furniture and jewelry real estate a profitable magazine contemporary art and the single most valuable asset his own unsold work a collection so large that its appraisal would take months In their early moments of panic Warhol's associates set the value of his estate at 10 15 million Seven years later with the estate not yet closed some claimed that Warhol's empire was worth 220 million while others would assert that it was worth 827 million Finally in April 1994 a New York surrogate's court judge fixed the value of Warhol's estate at more than 500 million Shortly after Warhol's death as directed in his will the Andy Warhol Foundation for the Visual Arts a not for profit grant giving organization was created By 1990 however the foundation the estate that created it and the attorney who at one time represented both entities would all be at war At the heart of the conflict was the question of the ultimate worth of one of this century's most influential artists and as the multimillion dollar battle was waged in court in the gossip columns and in the pages of newspapers and magazines a story both absurd and tragic a veritable saga for the nineties began to unfold

Haunted Jennifer Blessing, Nat Trotman, Peggy Phelan, Lisa Saltzman, Nancy Spector, 2010 Much of contemporary photography and video seems haunted by the past by ghostly apparitions that are reanimated in reproductive media as well as in live performance and the virtual world By using dated past or quasiextinct stylistic devices subject matter and technologies this art embodies a melancholic longing for an otherwise unrecuperable past Haunted examines the myriad ways photographic imagery is incorporated into recent practice and in the process underscores the unique power of reproductive media while documenting a widespread contemporary obsession with documenting the past The works included in the exhibition range from individual photographs and photographic series to sculptures and paintings that incorporate photographic elements to videos film performance and site specific installations Drawn primarily from the Guggenheim s collection Haunted features recent acquisitions many of which will be exhibited by the museum for the first time
