Contemporary Art in the Conflicts of Globalization Jonathan Harris, 2025-11-26 Contemporary Art in the Conflicts of Globalization presents an authoritative introductory guide to the emergence, development, and meanings of contemporary art around the world from the era of twentieth-century western colonialism to the crises and conflicts of globalization over the last three decades. Examining contemporary art's connections to and breaks from modern art in the last century, the study offers an innovative account of its artists' formation during the era of decolonization after 1945 and the Cold War. Through a series of complementary analytic perspectives, the book considers the cultural politics of the global art world, its patterns of inclusion and exclusion, and charts contemporary art's relations to feminist, anti-racist, and climate change activism among others, as these have both mutated and interconnected since the 1990s. More than 50 illustrations are included and are the basis for the book's empirical and theoretically informed study. The book is designed for both students and general readers and will be of great value for all who see contemporary art and global cultures as a contested ground of creativity and social significance within which transformative progressive change may be achieved for the whole world and all its peoples.

The World of Beryl Cook Beryl Cook, Jess Wilder, 2007 The World of Beryl Cook presents a unique survey of Beryl Cook's 40-year career. The book traces the origins of her inspiration from her life in Plymouth and Bristol to her love for the work of Stanley Spencer and Edward Burra.

Cruising Alecky Blythe, 2006 A hilarious real-life comedy about pensioners going in search of love from the sublime to the downright saucy. Maureen is a pensioner in search of passion. After 33 blind dates, 12 cruises, and one broken heart, she is still determined to find Mr Right. But when best friend Margaret beats her to the altar, Maureen has her doubts: is Margaret just on the rebound, and more importantly, will she lose her pension? Alecky Blythe's verbatim theatre play Cruising was first staged at the Bush Theatre, London, in 2006 in a co-production with Recorded Delivery, using an innovative verbatim theatre technique. The technique consists of recording interviews with real people, editing them, and replicating them on stage in all their uncanny verisimilitude. The result is both disconcertingly comic and profoundly moving, as all the individual peculiarities of the characters are scrupulously reproduced.
