Besa Muslims Who Saved Jews Ww II:

Besa Norman H. Gershman, 2008-12-12 Besa is a code of honor deeply rooted in Albanian culture and incorporated in the faith of Albanian Muslims. It dictates a moral behavior so absolute that nonadherence brings shame and dishonor on oneself and one's family. Simply stated, it demands that one take responsibility for the lives of others in their time of need. In Albania and Kosovo, Muslims sheltered at grave risk to themselves and their families not only the Jews of their cities and villages but thousands of Jews fleeing the Nazis from other European countries. Over a five-year period, photographer Norman H. Gershman sought out, photographed, and collected these powerful and moving stories of heroism in Besa Muslims Who Saved Jews in World War II. The book reveals a hidden period in history slowly emerging after the fall of an isolationist communist regime and shows the compassionate side of ordinary people in saving Jews. They acted within their true Muslim faith.

Perceptions of the Holocaust in Europe and Muslim Communities Günther Jikeli, Joëlle

Allouche-Benayoun, 2012-11-08 The way people think about the Holocaust is changing. The particular nature of the transformation depends on people's historical perspectives and how they position themselves and their nation or community vis-à-vis the tragedy. Understandably, European Muslims perceive the Holocaust as less central to their history than do other Europeans. Yet while the acknowledgement and commemoration of the horrors of the Holocaust are increasingly important in Europe, Holocaust denial and biased views on the Holocaust are widespread in European Muslims' countries of origin. In this book, a number of distinguished scholars and educators of various backgrounds discuss views of the Holocaust. Problematic views are often influenced by a persistent attitude of Holocaust denial which is derived in part from discourses in the Muslim communities in their countries of origin. The essays collected here explore the backgrounds of these perceptions and highlight positive approaches and developments. Many of the contributions were written by people working in the field and reflecting on their experiences. This collection also reveals that problematic views of the Holocaust are not limited to Muslim communities.

German, Jew, Muslim, Gay Marc David Baer, 2020-04-28 Hugo Marcus (1880-1966) was a man of many names and many identities. Born a German Jew, he converted to Islam and took the name Hamid, becoming one of the most prominent Muslims in Germany prior to World War II. He was renamed Israel by the Nazis and sent to the Sachsenhausen concentration camp before escaping to Switzerland. He was a gay man who never called himself gay but fought for homosexual rights and wrote queer fiction under the pen name Hans Alienus during his decades of exile. In German Jew Muslim Gay, Marc David Baer uses Marcus's life and work to shed new light on a striking range of subjects including German Jewish history and anti-Semitism, Islam in Europe, Muslim Jewish relations, and the history of the gay rights struggle. Baer explores how Marcus created a unique synthesis of German gay and Muslim identity that positioned Johann Wolfgang von Goethe as an intellectual and spiritual model. Marcus's life offers a new perspective on sexuality and on competing conceptions of gay identity in the multilayered world of interwar and postwar Europe. His unconventional story reveals new aspects of the interconnected histories of Jewish and Muslim individuals and communities including Muslim responses to Nazism and Muslim experiences of the Holocaust An intellectual biography of an exceptional yet little known figure German Jew Muslim Gay illuminates the complexities of twentieth century Europe s religious sexual and cultural politics

Searching for Justice After the Holocaust Michael J. Bazyler, Kathryn Lee Boyd, Kristen Nelson (Lawyer), Rajika Shah, 2019 The Nazis and their state sponsored cohorts stole mercilessly from the Jews of Europe In the aftermath of the Holocaust returning survivors had to navigate a frequently unclear path to recover their property from governments and neighbors who had failed to protect them and who often had been complicit in their persecution This book is about the less publicized area of post Holocaust restitution involving immovable real property confiscated from European Jews and others during World War II

Judaism, Christianity, and Islam Sander L. Gilman, 2014-11-01 Islam Christianity and Judaism share several common features including their historical origins in the prophet Abraham their belief in a single divine being and their modern global expanse Yet it is the seeming closeness of these Abrahamic religions that draws attention to the real or imagined differences between them This volume examines Abrahamic cultures as minority groups in societies which may be majority Muslim Christian or Jewish or self consciously secular The focus is on the relationships between these religious identities in global Diaspora where all of them are confronted with claims about national and individual difference The case studies range from colonial Hong Kong and Victorian London to today s San Francisco and rural India Each study shows how complex such relationships can be and how important it is to situate them in the cultural ethnic and historical context of their world The chapters explore ritual practice conversion colonization immigration and cultural representations of the differences between the Abrahamic religions An important theme is how the complex patterns of interaction among these religions embrace collaboration as well as conflict even in the modern Middle East This work by authors from several academic disciplines on a topic of crucial importance will be of interest to scholars of history theology sociology and cultural studies as well as to the general reader interested in how minority groups have interacted and coexisted This is a groundbreaking collection of original learned and cutting edge essays on various aspects of the three major monotheistic religions in modern times The subjects of the essays range across the globe from Hong Kong and South Asia to Victorian Britain and Weimar Germany and teach us to see each tradition and all three traditions together in new and original ways A distinctive contribution Steven T Katz Boston University Judaism Christianity and Islam is remarkable for bringing together accessible scholarly essays each with keen insight exploring the diverse Abrahamic cultures and their complex interactions As the human landscape of Europe continues to evolve this superb series of engagements with the past and present is an indispensable guide Michael Berkowitz University College London Gilman remains an unparalleled expert at identifying cutting edge interdisciplinary research The essays in this superb volume provide urgently needed comparative and theoretical examinations of the constructed natures of Christianity Islam and Judaism and the complex and challenging relationships they engender Lisa Silverman University of Wisconsin Milwaukee The Holocaust Paul R. Bartrop, Michael Dickerman, 2017-09-15 This four volume set provides reference entries primary documents and personal accounts from individuals who lived through the Holocaust that allow readers to better understand the cultural political and economic motivations that spurred the Final Solution The Holocaust that occurred during World War II remains one of the deadliest genocides in human history with an estimated two thirds of the 9 million Jews in Europe at the time being killed as a result of the policies of Adolf Hitler and Nazi Germany The Holocaust An Encyclopedia and Document Collection provides students with an all encompassing resource for learning about this tragic event a four book collection that provides detailed information as well as multidisciplinary perspectives that will serve as a gateway to meaningful discussion and further research The first two volumes present reference entries on significant individuals of the Holocaust both victims and perpetrators anti Semitic ideology and annihilationist policies advocated by the Nazi regime giving readers insight into the social political cultural military and economic aspects of the Holocaust while enabling them to better understand the Final Solution in Europe during World War II and its lasting legacy The third volume of the set presents memoirs and personal narratives that describe in their own words the experiences of survivors and resisters who lived through the chaos and horror of the Final Solution The last volume consists of primary documents including government decrees and military orders propaganda in the form of newspapers and pamphlets war crime trial transcripts and other items that provide a direct look at the causes and consequences of the Holocaust under the Nazi regime By examining these primary sources users can have a deeper understanding of the ideas and policies used by perpetrators to justify their actions in the annihilation of the Jews of Europe The set not only provides an invaluable and comprehensive research tool on the Holocaust but also offers historical perspective and examination of the origins of the discontent and cultural resentment that resulted in the Holocaust subject matter that remains highly relevant to key problems facing human society in the 21st century and beyond Explaining the Holocaust Mordecai Schreiber, 2015-04-16 Seventy years after it took place the Holocaust committed against the Jews of Europe during World War II continues to cast a giant shadow over humankind Man s inhumanity to man is not a thing of the past Genocidal action is still commonplace around the globe Has humankind learned the lessons of the past Is the human race doomed to live in a perpetual state of war and self destruction Explaining the Holocaust shows how given the right circumstances human beings can lose their humanity Does that mean that the ethical teachings of the major religions are wishful thinking This book tackles two questions that continue to be asked by people everywhere Why did a highly civilized nation like Germany in the middle of the twentieth century commit the most heinous crime in all of human history And if indeed there is a loving God who made a covenant with the people of Israel why were millions of innocent peaceful Jews dehumanized starved tortured and systematically murdered Explaining the Holocaust spares no one in discussing the enormity of the evil But it also shows how the divine spark in human beings did not die during those years of darkness and
