this essential volume for the film buff are over 500 still photos from the author's private collection Hollywood Movie Novels, 1918 Hollywood's Indian Peter Rollins, John E. O'Connor, 2003-12-14 Offering both in depth analyses of specific films and overviews of the industry's output Hollywood's Indian provides insightful characterizations of the depiction of the Native Americans in film This updated edition includes a new chapter on Smoke Signals the groundbreaking independent film written by Sherman Alexie and directed by Chris Eyre Taken as a whole the essays explore the many ways in which these portrayals have made an impact on our collective cultural life Eliminating Racism Phyllis A. Katz, Dalmas A. Taylor, 2013-06-29 The chapters presented here provide the reader with an awareness of the divergent views of what constitutes racism and frameworks for reducing it This book points out that the dialogue and research on this subject since the mid 1970s have yielded increased controversy over the theories foundation and continued existence of racism Ironically what we viewed in the 1954 Brown decision and the Civil Rights Act of 1964 as the beginning of the end of racism turned out to be the beginning of confusion over the course of action to ensure societal acceptance of political mandates Hence the title of this book captures the essence of the emotional core of any forum for examining racism past and present One of the most controversial forums has been that of education beginning with the U S Supreme Court's 1954 ruling in Brown v Board of Education Behind every event that has spawned controversy is a profile in courage It was not a simple decision for the players in the scenario of the Brown v Board of Education case to step forward and present themselves as evidence of discrimination Black parents supported by black organizations viewed this legal action as a chance for equal opportunity Yet the 1950s were a time when black communities were pained by the thought that bigotry and institutional racism would forever stand in the way of their achieving equality The Film Mercury, 1929 Columbia Pictures Horror, Science Fiction and Fantasy Films, 1928-1982 Michael R. Pitts, 2014-01-10 From 1928 through 1982 when Columbia Pictures Corporation was a traded stock company the studio released some of the most famous and popular films dealing with horror science fiction and fantasy This volume covers more than 200 Columbia feature films within these genres among them Close Encounters of the Third Kind The 7th Voyage of Sinbad Earth vs the Flying Saucers and The Revenge of Frankenstein Also discussed in depth are the vehicles of such horror icons as Boris Karloff Bela Lugosi and John Carradine Additionally highlighted are several of Columbia's lesser known genre efforts including the Boston Blackie and Crime Doctor series such individual features as By Whose Hand Cry of the Werewolf Devil Goddess Terror of the Tongs and The Creeping Flesh and dozens of the studio's short subjects serials and made for television movies The Only Good Indian Ralph E. Friar, Natasha A. Friar, 1972 Here is a book fired with the belief that Hollywood must be held publicly accountable for its complicity in the continual distortion and destruction of Native American cultures Beginning in the sixteenth century with the white man's early descriptions the authors show how a schizophrenic stereotype of the Indian as both a bloodthirsty savage and a noble but simple child of the forest has continued to dominate the popular art of this continent It continues to intrigue Europeans who line up for Hollywood westerns just as they once flocked to Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show. The authors expose the exploitative nature and hypocrisy of dime novels, plays, operas, popular songs, photographs, and paintings, all contributors to the notion that the only good Indian is a dead one. But their special outrage is reserved for Hollywood, whose golden age was plated in good part with box office receipts from movies glorifying cultural genocide. Book jacket
