

The background of the image is a dark, monochromatic photograph of several classical statues, likely from the Renaissance or Baroque period. The statues are seated and appear to be philosophers or scholars, dressed in long, flowing robes. The lighting is dramatic, highlighting the contours of the figures and their clothing. The overall tone is serious and intellectual.

The Best Books William Swan Sonnenschein, 1891 The Best Books: Class A, Theology. B, Mythology and folklore. C, Philosophy. 1910 William Swan Sonnenschein, 1910 Language and the Knowledge Economy Josep Soler, Kathrin Kaufhold, 2025-02-28 This volume offers a holistic understanding of the interconnections of language specifically English scholarly publishing and knowledge production and circulation through a sociolinguistic lens in contemporary academia across different European settings for research purposes The volume is organised around three parts the first part explores individual factors underpinning knowledge production and their role in shaping scholars academic careers the second part critically reflects on the challenges and opportunities for multilingual scholars in the academic landscape examining the inherent tensions in the interactions between English and other languages the final part considers the ways in which academic knowledge is institutionalised at universities private companies and on a national scale and the subsequent impact on knowledge dissemination Taken together the chapters provide a coherent and holistic overview of the affordances and limitations that different social actors experience when participating in such cycles including the different modes of access to resources across geographic contexts and disciplinary traditions An important contribution of the volume is the multilayered angle that it incorporates into analysing issues of scholarly publishing in today's academia placing language as a social practice at the heart of the structuring processes that condition the creation dissemination and consumption of knowledge in contemporary societies This book will be of interest to scholars in English for research and publication purposes sociolinguistics language and education and applied linguistics The Poems of Shelley: Volume Four Michael Rossington, Jack Donovan, Kelvin Everest, 2014-02-03 Percy Bysshe Shelley 1792-1822 was one of the major Romantic poets and wrote what is critically recognised as some of the finest lyric poetry in the English language This is the fourth volume of the five volume The Poems of Shelley which presents all of Shelley's poems in chronological order and with full annotation Date and circumstances of composition are provided for each poem and all manuscript and printed sources relevant to establishing an authoritative text are freshly examined and assessed Headnotes and footnotes furnish the personal literary historical and scientific information necessary to an informed reading of Shelley's varied and allusive verse Most of the poems in the present volume were written between late autumn 1820 and late summer 1821 They include Adonais Shelley's lament on the death of John Keats widely recognised as one of the finest elegies in English poetry as well as Epipsychidion a poem inspired by his relationship with the nineteen year old Teresa Viviani Emilia the object of an intense but temporary fascination for Shelley The poems of this period show the extent both of Shelley's engagement with Keats's volume Lamia Isabella The Eve of St Agnes and Other Poems 1820 a copy of which he first read in October 1820 and of his interest in Italian history culture and politics Shelley's translations of some of his own poems into Italian and his original compositions in the language are also included here In addition to accompanying commentaries there are extensive bibliographies to the poems a chronological table of Shelley's life and publications and indexes to titles and first lines The volumes of The Poems of Shelley form the most comprehensive edition of Shelley's poetry available to students and scholars
