B, Mythology and folklore. C, Philosophy William Swan Sonnenschein, 1910 Time, Religion and History William Gallois, 2014-06-11 What is time How does our sense of time lead us to approach the world How did the peoples of the past view time This book answers these questions through an investigation of the cultures of time in Christianity Islam Buddhism Judaism and the Australian Dreamtime It argues that our contemporary world is blind as to the significance and complexity of time preferring to believe that time is natural and unchanging This is of critical importance to historians since the base matter of their study is time yet there is almost no theoretical literature on time in history This book offers the first detailed historiographical study of the centrality of time to human cultures It sets out the complex ways in which ideas of time developed in the major world religions and the manner in which such conceptions led people both to live in ways very different to our contemporary world and to make very different kinds of histories It goes on to argue that modern scientific descriptions of time such as Einsteins Theory of Relativity lie much closer to the complex understandings of time in religions such as Christianity than they do to our common sense notions of time which are centred on progress through a past present and future

Practice What You Preach, Preach What You Practice Ronald Barnes,2016-11-30 What does it mean to be religious Religious ethical morality is not just a Sunday set aside or a social protocol to conform to peer group expectations nor should religion be used as a refuge of forgiveness for negative actions that do not change It is important to respect the religion of others even if you do not agree with their teachings However without a basic knowledge of other religions there is no basis for evaluation other than hear say and ignorance which are not rational foundations for evaluation Because the voice of women is diminished by men who devalue the contribution of women or men who attempt to dictate and define what should be the womans role and contribution As a result the world lacks the moral input of women who are considered the moral exemplar for humanity even by many male religious leaders
