Money, Greed, and God Jay W. Richards, 2019-06-04 A prominent scholar reveals the surprising ways that capitalism is actually the best way to follow Jesus's mandates to alleviate poverty and protect our earth Christianity generally sees capitalism as either bad because it causes much of the world's suffering or good because God wants you to prosper and be rich But there is a large growing audience of evangelical and mainline Christians who are deeply uneasy about how to follow Jesus's mandate to care for the poor and the environment while living with the excesses of capitalism Now a noted Christian scholar argues that there is a middle view that reveals Christianity cannot only accommodate capitalism but Christian theology can help explain why capitalism works By highlighting the most common myths committed by Christians when thinking about economics such as capitalism is based on greed and over consumption or if someone becomes rich that automatically means someone else will become poor Money Guilt and God equips readers to take practical steps in their own lives to conduct business worship God and serve others without falling into the prosperity gospel trap
