Accelerating Democracy John O. McGinnis, 2013 Cybernetics and Systems Sergio Barile, Raul Espejo, Igor Perko, Marialuisa Saviano, 2018-12-07 Society is now facing challenges for which the traditional management toolbox is increasingly inadequate Well grounded theoretical frameworks such as systems thinking and cybernetics offer general level interpretation schemes and models that are capable of supporting understanding of complex phenomena and are not impacted by the passage of time This book serves the knowledge society to address the complexity of decision making and problem solving in the 21st century with contributions from systems and cybernetics A multi disciplinary approach has been adopted to support diversity and to develop inter and trans disciplinary knowledge within the shared thematic of problem solving and decision making in the 21st century Its conceptual thread is cyber systemic thinking and its realisation is supported by a wide network of scientists on the basis of a highly participative agenda The book provides a platform of knowledge sharing and conceptual frameworks developed with multi disciplinary perspectives which are useful to better understand the fast changing scenario and the complexity of problem solving in the present time The Geopolitics and Geoconomics of Technology J. Mark Munoz, 2026-01-29 Geopolitics refers to the confluence of factors such as geography economics and demography on the politics and policies of governments states and other key global actors In recent years technological breakthroughs have altered the operational and competitive terrain of organizations around the world Technological dominance has become an important form of competitive advantage for countries It is increasingly important for organizations worldwide to understand the relevance and impact of geopolitical events on technology and vice versa This book assembles the views of leading thinkers from around the world and identifies key issues to consider in the geopolitics and geoconomics of technology Drawing upon academic research and practitioner insights the book is designed to be a key reference book on the topic offering clear conceptual frameworks and empirical findings and combining them with practical approaches that may be used by executives academics and policymakers It builds on rich perspectives from experts from around the world offering both the depth and breadth of coverage on the topic The book offers insights into future trends and their potential impact on geopolitics offering recommendations for policymakers and stakeholders to navigate the contemporary geopolitical and geoeconomic landscape The book s audience will include technology and management executives entrepreneurs educators consultants and policymakers worldwide Political Automation Eduardo Albrecht, 2025 Governments now routinely use AI based software to gather information about citizens and determine the level of privacy a person can enjoy how far they can travel what public benefits they may receive and what they can and cannot say publicly What input do citizens have in how these machines think In Political Automation Eduardo Albrecht explores this question in various domains including policing national security and international peacekeeping Drawing upon interviews with rights activists Albrecht examines popular attempts to interact with this novel form of algorithmic governance so far He then proposes the idea of a Third House a virtual chamber that legislates exclusively on AI in government decision making and is based on principles of direct democracy unlike existing upper and lower houses that are representative Digital citizens AI powered replicas of ourselves would act as our personal emissaries to this Third House An in depth look at how political automation impacts the lives of citizens this book addresses the challenges at the heart of automation in public policy decision making and offers a way forward Political Participation And Institutional Innovation: A Case Study Of Zhejiang Shengyong Chen,Dongsheng Zhong,Xingzhi Wu,Bingxuan Zhang,2020-03-19 The participation of citizens in democratic politics serves as an indicator to measure a country s development its political modernization and political civilization To promote citizens political participation it is important to have them participate extensively in local governance and exercise their constitutional rights This book analyses Zhejiang s experience in democratic consultation hearing people s proposal solicitation system television and Internet political consultation official and citizen dialogue on government websites It studies how common people can actively participate in politics and manage the public affairs of the country through institutionalized ways and means Future Politics Jamie Susskind,2018-09-12 Future Politics confronts one of the most important questions of our time how will digital technology transform politics and society The great political debate of the last century was about how much of our collective life should be determined by the state and what should be left to the market and civil society In the future the question will be how far our lives should be directed and controlled by powerful digital systems and on what terms Jamie Susskind argues that rapid and relentless innovation in a range of technologies from artificial intelligence to virtual reality will transform the way we live together Calling for a fundamental change in the way we think about politics he describes a world in which certain technologies and platforms and those who control them come to hold great power over us Some will gather data about our lives causing us to avoid conduct perceived as shameful sinful or wrong Others will filter our perception of the world choosing what we know shaping what we think affecting how we feel and guiding how we act Still others will force us to behave certain ways like self driving cars that refuse to drive over the speed limit Those who control these technologies usually big tech firms and the state will increasingly control us They will set the limits of our liberty decreeing what we may do and what is forbidden Their algorithms will resolve vital questions of social justice allocating social goods and sorting us into hierarchies of status and esteem They will decide the future of democracy causing it to flourish or decay A groundbreaking work of political analysis Future Politics challenges readers to rethink what it means to be free or equal what it means to have power or property what it means for a political system to be just or democratic and proposes ways in which we can and must regain control

Political Transition and Inclusive Development in Malawi Dan Banik,Blessings Chinsinga,2016-06-10 Malawi is among the few countries in sub Saharan Africa that has witnessed significant improvements in relation to meeting the Millennium Development Goal MDG targets It exhibits some of the main challenges facing African democracies while they attempt to consolidate the benefits of democratisation Political Transition and Inclusive Development in Malawi critically analyses opportunities and constraints related to the impact of democracy on development in one of the world's poorest countries The book explores how and to what extent processes related to democratic and economic governance can be strengthened in order to make political and administrative authorities more responsive to development needs It also considers characteristics of successful implementation of public policy and the effective and timely delivery of basic services in local contexts increased citizen participation and dialogue with local government authorities factors that enable civil society organisations to hold political and administrative officials to account and better utilisation of academic research for improved evidence based policy formulation and implementation This volume will be of great interest to scholars in development studies African studies politics law and anthropology as well as policymakers and those interested in democracy governance human rights and the implementation of anti poverty programmes development administration and decentralisation
