What I Learned About Investing from Darwin Pulak Prasad, 2023-05-23 The investment profession is in a state of crisis. The vast majority of equity fund managers are unable to beat the market over the long term, which has led to massive outflows from active funds to passive funds. Where should investors turn in search of a new approach? Pulak Prasad offers a philosophy of patient long-term investing based on an unexpected source: evolutionary biology. He draws key lessons from core Darwinian concepts, mixing vivid examples from the natural world with compelling stories of good and bad investing decisions, including his own. How can bumblebees' survival strategies help us accept that we might miss out on Tesla? What does an experiment in breeding tame foxes reveal about the traits of successful businesses? Why might a small frog's mimicry of the croak of a larger rival shed light on the signs of corporate dishonesty? Informed by successful evolutionary strategies, Prasad outlines his counterintuitive principles for long-term gain. He provides three mantras of investing: Avoid big risks, buy high quality at a fair price, and don't be lazy; be very lazy. Prasad makes a persuasive case for a strategy that rules out the vast majority of investment opportunities and advocates permanently owning high-quality businesses. Combining punchy prose and practical insight, What I Learned About Investing from Darwin reveals why evolutionary biology can help fund managers become better at their craft.

Get to Aha!: Discover Your Positioning DNA and Dominate Your Competition Andy Cunningham,2017-09-29 From the marketing strategist who helped Steve Jobs launch the original Apple Macintosh comes a groundbreaking guide to positioning any company for industry dominance Andy Cunningham has been at the forefront of tech and innovation since day one and she's been helping companies create new product categories ever since. Now she reveals the winning framework she uses to transform markets and industries. Get to Aha shows how to establish the kind of foundation world-class brands are built on. Too many business leaders fail to ask the most basic questions about their company: Who are we? And why do we matter? Before they leap right into branding. Big mistake. A company must first know itself, establish its position, before it can express its identity, execute its branding. There are three types of companies in the world, each with its own DNA. Mothers are customer-oriented, Mechanics are product-oriented, and Missionaries are concept-oriented, and it's absolutely critical for business leaders to know which type their company is to create an authentic and ultimately sticky position in the market. A company's DNA is the key to achieving this and with it a competitive advantage. Why? Because if a Mechanic creates a marketing campaign based on its belief that it is a Missionary, the underlying positioning will not ring true, and the company won't gain a foothold in the market. But if a company positions itself in alignment with its DNA, it will resonate authentically and establish its role and relevance even in the face of a major competitor. Get to Aha presents a clear step-by-step framework that will help you determine your company's precise position in the marketing landscape using Andy's DNA-based methodology. It takes you through the process of performing genetic testing on your company, examining the market through the six Cs of positioning, and developing your positioning statement, a rational, factual statement about your company's role and relevance. Then and only then can you create a branding and marketing strategy that will build market momentum and crush the competition. Trust Andy. Steve Jobs did. F & S Index United States Annual, 2007. E-commerce Kenneth C. Laudon, Carol Guercio Traver, 2009. For the undergraduate and graduate e-commerce course in any business discipline. This comprehensive market-leading text emphasizes the three major driving forces behind e-commerce to provide a coherent conceptual framework for understanding the field: technology, change, business development, and social issues.
