About – APITM 28 Exam

APITM 28 Exam Overview

Summary: The basic information about the APITM 28 exam is provided below. If you have learned any of the APITM 28 material prior to taking the APITM 28 exam, questions are formulated on a much broader basis. The questions are often based on basic, as well as more advanced, underwriting topics, rather than the more specific topics of each topic, just as questions are on the APITM 28 exam.

The following table summarizes the major focus of the exam, as well as some, in particular, underwriting requirements, basic insurance underwriting, and non-insurance underwriting. We want to fully understand the underwriting concepts, actions, and focus of insurance. The APITM 28 exam will give you, in the areas of personal insurance, a very good guide to focus on understanding an application based on given situations. At the back of the exam, there will be three sample documents and one sample process. It will be your job to find the one thing(s) unusual about each, one of the questions that might focus on the exam is "What's the following one unusual by the underwriting concept(s) used?"

We presented the three types of questions. The best way to prepare for this is to take notes and to refer back underwriting concepts and requirements, topics, sample documents and sample processes when you study to ensure that you cover all aspects of the APITM 28 exam.

APITM 28 Exam – Personal Insurance

There are a couple of resources provided on the website for the APITM 28 exam. It is recommended you read each of these before you begin to study. This will give you a feel of what to expect on your underwriting exam.

- APITM 28 Exam Overview – details the number of questions on the exam, question format, and most important topics
- APITM 28 Sample Questions – details about the type of questions you will see on the APITM 28 exam along with a description of how to approach it with focus on question
- Previous exams – there are four APITM 28 previous exams that will give you an idea of what to expect on the exam. These may have recently discontinued, but the focus

Important

Remember: every APITM 28 exam is different. No single aspect of the exam is the same. Be sure to study all topics and your underwriting concepts. This exam is the APITM 28 exam is intended to provide you to prepare well

Good Luck!
