Ivo van Hove Susan Bennett, Sonia Massai, 2018-07-12 This book offers a wealth of resources critical overviews and detailed analysis of Ivo van Hove's internationally acclaimed work as the foremost director of theatre opera and musicals in our time. Stunning production photos capture the power of van Hove's directorial vision, his innovative use of theatrical spaces and the arresting stage images that have made his productions so popular among audiences worldwide over the last 30 years. Van Hove's own contribution to the book, which includes a foreword, interview and his director's notes for some of his most popular shows, makes this book a unique resource for students, scholars and for his fans across the different art forms in which he works. An informative introduction provides an overview of van Hove's unique approach to directing, while five sections individually curated by experts in the respective fields of Shakespeare, classical theatre, modern theatre, opera, musicals, film and international festival curatorship offer readers a combination of critical insight and short excerpts by van Hove's collaborators, the actors in the ensemble companies van Hove works with in Amsterdam and New York and by arts critics and reviewers.

Doing the Time Warp Sarah Taylor Ellis, 2022-01-27 Doing the Time Warp explores how song and dance sites of aesthetic difference in the musical can warp time and enable marginalized and semi-marginalized fans to imagine different ways of being in the world. While the musical is a bastion of mainstream theatrical culture, it also supports a fan culture of outsiders who dream themselves into being in the strange liminal timespaces of its musical numbers. Through analysing musicals of stage and screen ranging from Rent to Ragtime, Glee to Taylor Mac's A 24 Decade History of Popular Music, Sarah Taylor Ellis investigates how alienated subjects find moments of coherence and connection in musical theatre's imaginaries of song and dance. Exploring an array of archival work and live performance, such as Larry Gelbart's papers in the UCLA Performing Arts Collections and the shadowcast performances of Los Angeles's Sins o the Flesh, Doing the Time Warp probes the politics of musicals and considers how the genre's strange temporalities can point towards new futurities for identities and communities in difference.
