Angels Task Poems In Biblical Time:

Angel's Task Laurie L. Patton, 2010 Laurie Patton's Poems in Biblical Time give contemplative voice to the reading cycle of the Jewish year Replete with ancient imagery coming alive in the language of the present each poem weaves scripture into everyday life while refocusing a single Biblical moment In her vision here angels are also messengers sent to earth with a single piece of work to accomplish Although we are of so many minds burdened with so many tasks as readers we again receive messengers and the messages they bring Recognition may come in the angelic voice and we can meet angels and ourselves at the tent door in the heat of the day Angel's Task urges continuous awe or trembling Listening to the Heart of Genesis Leila Gal Berner, 2021-02-04 For those seeking a fresh contemporary approach to the stories and themes of Genesis this book offers an inspiring gateway into the heart of the ancient text Both newcomers and seasoned readers will benefit from Rabbi Leila Gal Berner's invitation to personal contemplation Basing her work on a Christian method of reading Scripture lectio divina reading the holy Rabbi Berner's adaptation for Jews as kariat ha kodesh reading the sacred is welcoming and accessible to readers of all faiths After retelling each story from a very human perspective Rabbi Berner advances rabbinic perspectives that have illuminated each biblical saga over the centuries In addition she brings the text to life with contemporary stories of real people whose experiences echo the biblical stories A final section to each chapter suggests probing questions for personal contemplation and meditation which can be used both by individual readers as part of a spiritual practice and also by groups of spiritual seekers Group leaders will find a helpful facilitator's guide to structure their sessions Beginning with Rabbi Berner's own classes groups have formed throughout North America using her method

The three volumes delve into the pantheon of deities, mythological narratives, and cultural practices of the Teutonic peoples, highlighting the interconnections between mythology and the broader historical context of Northern Europe. Rydberg employs a comparative approach, drawing parallels between Norse myths and those from other cultures, paving the way for a nuanced understanding of the enduring legacy of these stories throughout time. Rydberg, a prominent Swedish writer and philosopher of the 19th century, drew on his profound interest in history and folklore, fueled by the Romantic movement's emphasis on national identity and cultural heritage. His extensive research reflects a desire to resurrect and validate the narratives of his ancestors, positioning them within the larger tapestry of European mythology. This work not only showcases his intellect but also symbolizes a broader cultural renaissance in Sweden, as intellectuals sought to reclaim and preserve their mythic past. For readers fascinated by mythology, history, or the cultural identity of the Norse peoples, Rydberg's Teutonic Mythology is an indispensable resource. Its rich analysis and compelling narrative will not only enlighten but also inspire a deeper appreciation for the mythic traditions that shaped Europe's cultural landscape. This landmark work remains a crucial text for both scholars and enthusiasts seeking to understand the roots of Norse mythology and its lasting impact on contemporary literature and culture. The Bible educator, ed. by E.H. Plumptre, Edward Hayes Plumptre, 1874 A Library of Religious Poetry Philip Schaff, Arthur Gilman, 1885 Doctrine and Exegesis in Biblical Latin Poetry Daniel Joseph Niles, 1993 Up to the eighteenth century the Latin biblical epic poets of late antiquity were much read and were influential on various strands within European poetry. Milton's Paradise Lost is the culmination of the English branch of the tradition. Renewed scholarly interest in the literature of the late Roman period has included a reevaluation of its biblical poetry. But attention has been concentrated on the rhetorical skill of the writers in terms of content; it is still often assumed that biblical epic is a straightforward rendering of the Bible narrative. Doctrine and Exegesis in Biblical Latin Poetry throws light on an important but underexplored aspect of the content of these works. In a thorough study of how two areas of doctrine significant in late antiquity, the nature of God and the theory of creation, are represented in the biblical epics, Daniel Niles shows that the poets were actively commenting on and propagating particular views of the vital doctrinal issues of their time The writers represented in this volume range in time from the fourth to the sixth centuries the female poet Proba whose Virgilian Cento is one of the earliest examples of biblical epic Cyprianus Gallus Hilarius poeta Claudius Marius Victorius the north African Dracontius and Avitus Bishop of Vienne The author draws on the works of the Church Fathers both Greek and Latin and on Jewish exegetical writings The book should interest students of later Latin literature church history and theology and exegesis The Bible Educator Edward Hayes Plumptre,1899 The New Interpreter's Dictionary of the Bible Katharine Doob Sakenfeld,2006 The first source for Bible readers students teachers and ministers who seek information on any topic related to the Bible The Christian Advocate ,1908 A Dictionary of the Bible: A-Feasts James Hastings,1901 David Swing, Poet-preacher Joseph Fort Newton,1909 St. Mary's Chimes ,1920 The Literary World ,1898 Christian Advocate and Journal and Zion's Herald ,1899
