Filho, Michael Littledyke, 2004 This book aims at introducing readers to the different ways in which environmental education is viewed and perceived on an international basis. It is one of the outcomes of the First World Environmental Education Congress FWEEC held in Espinho Portugal on 20th 24th May 2003. FWEEC gathered 282 participants from 38 countries offering an international platform for educators scientists researchers scholars politicians technicians activists the media and teachers to present and debate key issues in environmental education world wide. It includes many of the papers delivered in the Congress and a few additional ones in an attempt to both document international experiences and promote them to a wide audience. This publication is meant to pave the ground for the UN International Decade of Education for Sustainable Development 2005 2014 by addressing one of the oldest and yet one of the most pressing needs in environmental education today the need to document experiences and promote good practice. This book will be useful to those undertaking research practical projects and doing works on the ground in both formal and non formal teaching. The extensive body of information and knowledge gathered by the authors will be helpful to both researchers and practitioners contributing towards developing their capacity so that they may become even better at what they do      The School Journal ,1907
