Monsters, Animals, and Other Worlds Keller Kimbrough,Haruo Shirane,2018-02-20 Monsters Animals and Other Worlds is a collection of twenty five medieval Japanese tales of border crossings and the fantastic featuring demons samurai talking animals amorous plants and journeys to supernatural realms The most comprehensive compendium of short medieval

Japanese fiction in English Monsters Animals and Other Worlds illuminates a rich world of literary Buddhist and visual culture largely unknown today outside of Japan These stories called otogiz shi or Muromachi tales named after the Muromachi period 1337 to 1573 date from approximately the fourteenth through seventeenth centuries Often richly illustrated in a painted scroll format these vernacular stories frequently express Buddhist beliefs and provide the practical knowledge and moral education required to navigate medieval Japanese society The otogiz shi represent a major turning point in the history of Japanese literature They bring together many earlier types of narrative court tales military accounts anecdotes and stories about the divine origins of shrines and temples joining book genres with parlor arts and the culture of itinerant storytellers and performers The works presented here are organized into three thematically overlapping sections titled Monsters Warriors and Journeys to Other Worlds Buddhist Tales and Interspecies Affairs Each translation is prefaced by a short introduction and the book features images from the original scroll paintings illustrated manuscripts and printed books

Handbook of Halal Food Production Mian N. Riaz,Muhammad M. Chaudry,2018-09-03 Until now books addressing Halal issues have focused on helping Muslim consumers decide what to eat and what to avoid among products currently on the market There was no resource that the food industry could refer to that provided the guidelines necessary to meet the Halal requirements of Muslim consumers in the United States and abroad Handbook of Halal Food Production answers this need by summarizing the fundamentals of Halal food production serving as a valuable reference for food scientists food manufacturers and other food industry professionals This text delivers a wealth of information about Halal food guidelines for food production domestic and international food markets and Halal certification Among chapters that cover production requirements for specific foods such as meat and poultry fish and seafood and dairy products there are other chapters that address global Halal economy Muslim demography and global Halal trade and comparisons among Kosher Halal and vegetarian In addition the book presents Halal food laws and regulations HACCP and Halal and general guidelines for Halal food Production For persons targeting the Halal food market for the first time this book is particularly valuable providing understanding of how to properly select process and deliver foods In light of the increasing worldwide demand for Halal food service branded packaged food and direct marketed items this volume is more than an expert academic resource it is a beneficial tool for developing new and promising revenue streams Both editors are food scientists who have practical experience in Halal food requirements and Halal certification and the contributors are experts in the Halal food industries

Philoponus: On Aristotle Posterior Analytics 2 Philoponus,2014-04-22 The Posterior Analytics contains Aristotle's philosophy of science In Book 2 Aristotle asks how the scientist discovers what sort of loss of light constitutes lunar eclipse The scientist has to discover that the moon's darkening is due to the earth's shadow Once that defining explanation is known the scientist possesses the full scientific concept of lunar eclipse and can use it to explain other necessary features of the phenomenon The present commentary arguably ascribed to Philoponus incorrectly offers some interpretations of Aristotle that are unfamiliar nowadays For example the scientific concept of a human is acquired from observing particular humans and repeatedly receiving impressions in the sense image or percept and later in the imagination The impressions received are not only of particular distinctive characteristics like paleness but also of universal human characteristics like rationality Perception can thus in a sense apprehend universal qualities in the individual as well as particular ones This volume contains an English translation of the commentary accompanied by extensive commentary notes an introduction and a bibliography
