Advances In Chinese As A Second Language Acquisition And Processing:

Advances in Chinese as a Second Language Nan Jiang, 2014-03-17 This book is a collection of 13 empirical studies examining the acquisition and processing of Chinese as a second language On the acquisition front these studies explore the acquisition of structures such as the perfective marker le wh questions bei constructions and bare nouns and examine the factors that may affect acquisition such as learners background anxiety and instruction Processing studies cover topics such as the identification of Chinese tones the recognition of characters the processing of compounds and relative clauses and the expression of motion events Many of these studies represent pioneering and cutting edge research on their respective topics and all will be of interest to students and scholars who are interested in the study of acquisition and processing of Chinese as a second language

Writing Systems, Reading Processes, and Cross-Linguistic Influences Hye K. Pae, 2018-07-15 This book provides readers with a unique array of scholarly reflections on the writing systems of Chinese Japanese and Korean in relation to reading processes and data driven interpretations of cross language transfer Distinctively broad in scope topics addressed in this volume include word reading with respect to orthographic phonological morphological and semantic processing as well as cross linguistic influences on reading in English as a second language or a foreign language Given that the three focal scripts have unique orthographic features not found in other languages Chinese as logography Japanese with multi scripts and Korean as non Roman alphasyllabary chapters expound script universal and script specific reading processes As a means of scaling up the body of knowledge traditionally focused on Anglocentric reading research the scientific accounts articulated in this volume importantly expand the field s current theoretical frameworks of word processing to theory building with regard to these three languages

New Perspectives and Developments in Chinese Semantics Xu Wen, Ruiliang Tang, 2026-01-01 This book summarizes the latest research findings of Chinese semantics in the past decade It reviews and sorts out the innovation and development of Chinese semantic research with the fundamental of topics such as lexical semantics sentence semantics discourse semantics formal semantics cognitive semantics semantic change research and applied semantics This book serves as a useful reference for scholars and graduate students engaged in linguistics particularly in the field of semantics

Handbook of Chinese Language Learning and Technology Shou-Hsin Teng, Li-Ping Chang, Te-Hsin Liu, 2025-02-25 This handbook explores quantitative linguistics pedagogy and Mandarin language acquisition in an integrated fashion and helps readers grasp how insights from quantitative linguistics can shed light on Mandarin language acquisition It focuses on issues related to language processing learning and teaching and how these aspects are affected or enhanced by corpus based and computational linguistics By following a data driven approach the handbook demonstrates how theoretical problems in the acquisition of Chinese can be resolved with empirical evidence The book serves as an essential resource for students and researchers wishing to explore the fascinating field of Chinese language processing and acquisition

Theoretical and Methodological Developments in Processability Theory Kristof Baten, Aafke Buyl, Katja Lochtman, Mieke Van Herreweghe, 2015-12-15 This edited volume is devoted to expanding the theoretical basis of Processability Theory a theory of second language development that combines insights in the way speakers generate language and store their language knowledge to predict describe and explain developmental sequences Pienemann 1998 2005 The aim of the book is to provide a forum for new perspectives focusing on three intersections 1 the interface between morpho syntax and discourse pragmatics semantics 2 constraints on processing and receptive processing and 3 developments in instructed second language learning Each part also includes a response paper in which the new perspectives in terms of the theoretical challenges and or the empirical results of the preceding chapters are discussed This collection of articles and response papers will be very relevant to students and researchers interested in theoretical aspects of second language acquisition and more specifically Processability Theory and clearly indicates that the field is lively and open The Routledge Handbook of Chinese Second Language Acquisition Chuanren Ke, 2018-03-29 The Routledge Handbook of Chinese Second Language Acquisition is the first reference work of its kind The handbook contains twenty contributions from leading experts in the field of Chinese SLA covering a wide range of topics such as social contexts linguistic perspectives skill learning individual differences and learning settings and testing Each chapter covers historical perspectives core issues and key findings research approaches pedagogical implications future research direction and additional references The Routledge Handbook of Chinese Second Language Acquisition is an essential reference for Chinese language teachers and researchers in Chinese applied linguistics and second language acquisition Second Language Instruction/acquisition Abstracts ,1997

Advances in Chinese Industrial Studies Nigel Campbell, Sylvain R. Plasschaert, David H. Brown, 1989-11 Phonetic Work in Progress Jo Verhoeven, 2002 Studies on Learning and Teaching Chinese as a Second Language Xiaohong Wen, Xin Jiang, 2018-11-06 Studies on Learning and Teaching Chinese as a Second Language represents the current advances in the field It showcases theoretically motivated empirical studies and diverse methods used for a better understanding of how Chinese language is acquired as a second or foreign language This contributes to L2 acquisition research in general and L2 Chinese specifically Furthermore this research is useful for teachers seeking to understand their students learning processes and adjust their pedagogical approach for more effective instruction The book bridges the gap between research and instruction by providing pedagogical implications rooted in empirical findings Linguistics and Language Behavior Abstracts ,2009-04 National Reconstruction ,1946 国家重建 ,1945 Modern Chinese as a Foreign Language Ming Chao Gui, 2008 Reading Development in Chinese Children Catherine McBride-Chang, Hsuan-Chih Chen, 2003-12-30 This text reviews both similarities and unique cultural linguistic and script differences of Chinese relative to alphabetic

reading and even across Chinese regions Chinese reading acquisition relies upon children's strongly developing analytic skills as highlighted here These 16 chapters present state of the art research on diverse aspects of Chinese children's reading development This edited volume presents research on Chinese children's reading development across Chinese societies Authors from China Hong Kong Singapore and Taiwan among others present the latest findings on how Chinese children learn to read Reading acquisition in Chinese involves some parameters typically not encountered in some other orthographies such as English For example Chinese readers in different regions might speak different mutually unintelligible languages be taught to read with or without the aid of a phonetic coding system and learn different scripts This book both implicitly and explicitly considers these and other contextual issues in relation to developmental and cognitive factors involved in Chinese literacy acquisition One of the clearest themes to emerge from this volume is that across regions Chinese children despite lack of explicit teaching of phonetic or semantic character components learn to read largely by integrating visible print sound and print meaning connections Rather than learning to read Chinese characters by rote as is sometimes mistakenly believed these children are analytic learners Chapters in this book also cover such topics as Chinese children's reading comprehension cognitive characteristics of good and poor readers and reading strategies of bilingual and biscriptal readers This book is a useful reference for anyone interested in understanding either developing or skilled reading of Chinese or for those interested in literacy learning across cultures Understanding Second Language Process Zhao Hong Han, Eun Sung Park, 2008 This book assembles 11 analytical and empirical studies on the process of second language acquisition probing a wide array of issues from transfer appropriate processing to L2 default processing strategies among hearing or deaf learners of a variety of target languages including English Japanese Chinese Korean French Spanish and American Sign Language Although instruction per se is not the focus of this volume the chapters are written with instructed learners in mind and hence offer valuable insights for both second and foreign language researchers and practitioners
