Adventures Gillion Trazegnies Chivalry Medieval:

The Adventures of Gillion de Trazegnies Elizabeth Morrison, Zrinka Stahuljak, 2015-12-25 One of the finest works from the golden era of Flemish manuscript illumination the Getty's copy of the Romance of Gillion de Trazegnies tells of the adventures of a medieval nobleman Part travelogue part romance and part epic the text traces the exciting exploits of Gillion as he journeys to Jerusalem on pilgrimage is imprisoned in Egypt and rises to the command of the Sultan's armies mistakenly becomes a bigamist first with a Christian and then a Muslim wife and dies in battle as a glorious hero The tale encompasses the most thrilling elements of the Western romance genre love villainy loyalty and war set against the backdrop of the East This lavishly illustrated volume reveals for the first time the complexity of this illuminated romance A complete reproduction of the book's illustrations and a partial translation of the text appear along with essays that explore the manuscript's vibrant cultural historical and artistic contexts The innovative illuminations by the renowned artist Lieven van Lathem juxtapose the reality of medieval Europe with an idealized vision of the East This unusual pairing found in the text and illustrations is the source of a rich discussion of the fifteenth century political situation in the West and the Crusades in the East The New Cambridge Companion to Medieval Romance Roberta L. Krueger, 2023-05-25 This new Companion introduces the most important medieval vernacular literary genre in Britain and continental Europe Toward a Global Middle Ages Bryan C. Keene, 2019-09-03 This important and overdue book examines illuminated manuscripts and other book arts of the Global Middle Ages Illuminated manuscripts and illustrated or decorated books like today's museums preserve a rich array of information about how premodern peoples conceived of and perceived the world its many cultures and everyone's place in it Often a Eurocentric field of study manuscripts are prisms through which we can glimpse the interconnected global history of humanity Toward a Global Middle Ages is the first publication to examine decorated books produced across the globe during the period traditionally known as medieval Through essays and case studies the volume's multidisciplinary contributors expand the historiography chronology and geography of manuscript studies to embrace a diversity of objects individuals narratives and materials from Africa Asia Australasia and the Americas an approach that both engages with and contributes to the emerging field of scholarly inquiry known as the Global Middle Ages Featuring more than 160 color illustrations this wide ranging and provocative collection is intended for all who are interested in engaging in a dialogue about how books and other textual objects contributed to world making strategies from about 400 to 1600 Fixers Zrinka Stahuljak, 2024-01-26 A new history of early global literature that treats translators as active agents mediating cultures In this book Zrinka Stahuljak challenges scholars in both medieval and translation studies to rethink how ideas and texts circulated in the medieval world Whereas many view translators as mere conduits of authorial intention Stahuljak proposes a new perspective rooted in a term from journalism the fixer With this language Stahuljak captures the diverse active roles medieval translators and interpreters played as mediators of entire cultures insider informants local guides knowledge brokers art distributors and political players Fixers offers nothing less than a new history of literature art translation and social exchange from the perspective not of the author or state but of the fixer

Knight for the Ages, A Elizabeth Morrison, 2018 The Livre des faits de Jacques de Lalaing Book of the Deeds of Jacques de Lalaing a famous Flemish illuminated manuscript relays the audacious life of Jacques de Lalaing 1421-1453 a story that reads more like a fast paced adventure novel Produced in the tradition of chivalric biography a genre developed in the mid fifteenth century to celebrate the great personalities of the day the manuscript's text and illuminations begin with a magnificent frontispiece by the most acclaimed Flemish illuminator of the sixteenth century Simon Bening A Knight for the Ages Jacques de Lalaing and the Art of Chivalry presents a kaleidoscopic view of the manuscript with essays written by the world's leading medievalists adding rich texture and providing a greater understanding of the many aspects of the manuscript's background creation and reception revealing for the first time the full complexity of this illuminated romance The texts are accompanied by stunning reproductions of all of the manuscript's miniatures never before published in color as well as a plot summary and translations allowing the reader to follow Jacques de Lalaing on his knightly journeys and experience the thrilling triumphs of his legendary tournaments and battles

Trans Historical Greta LaFleur, Masha Raskolnikov, Anna Klosowska, 2021-11-15 Trans Historical explores the plurality of gender experiences that flourished before the modern era from Late Antiquity to the eighteenth century across a broad geographic range from Spain to Poland and Byzantium to Boston Refuting arguments that transgender people experiences and identities were non-existent or even impossible prior to the twentieth century this volume focuses on archives literary texts trial transcripts documents and artifacts that denaturalize gender as a category The volume historicizes the many different social lives of sexual differentiation exploring what gender might have been before modern medicine the anatomical sciences and the sedimentation of gender difference into its putatively binary form The volume's multidisciplinary group of contributors consider how individuals communities and states understood and enacted gender as a social experience distinct from the assignment of sex at birth Alongside historical questions about the meaning of sexual differentiation Trans Historical also offers a series of diverse meditations on how scholars of the medieval and early modern periods might approach gender nonconformity before the nineteenth century emergence of the norm and the normal Contributors Abdulhamit Arvas University of Pennsylvania Roland Betancourt University of California Irvine M W Bychowski Case Western Reserve University Emma Campbell Warwick University Igor H de Souza Yale University Leah DeVun Rutgers University Micah James Goodrich University of Connecticut Alexa Alice Joubin George Washington University Anna K. Fixers Zrinka Stahuljak, 2024-01-26 In this book Zrinka Stahuljak issues a challenge to scholars working in medieval studies to account for the history of translation and to experts in translation studies to read the work of medievalists Focusing on the term fixer she unpacks modern uses of the words interpreter and translator and restores them to their premodern origins as an active agent who performed a wide range of tasks as insider informant local guide broker of knowledge and transmitter of art For Stahuljak the fixer was a multifunctional intermediary not a mere translator or interpreter in the restricted modern sense but an enabler facilitator and mediator the engine driving the exchange of multiple linguistic social cultural and topographic forms of knowledge She proposes a paradigmatic shift for both medieval literary history and for the history of translation to confront and interrogate each other in their core disciplinary practices which promote national political and colonial agendas masked as neutrality Surveying a variety of texts from 1250 to 1500 including crusade treatises and travel writings accounts of pilgrims and spies chronicles and romances in both prose and verse and traversing an impressive range of languages including Latin Middle French German Italian and Spanish Stahuljak asks both medievalists and translation studies scholars to reconsider their assumptions and methods as a way to reconstruct a premodern precolonial inclusive world literature
