Animal Tales Kevin Cooper:

Animal Tales Kevin Cooper, 2015-11-30 Animal Tales is a lovely collection of short stories and poetry about cats dogs birds and even a mouse wins admiration Most of these tales were inspired by real life events Proceeds from Animal Tales are donated to the RSPCA Beatrix Potter's Peter Rabbit Margaret Mackey, 2002 Thirteen essays explore the timeless appeal of Peter's antics and the impact of this extraordinary book on children worldwide Contributors each a respected scholar in the field of children's literature examine details of Potter's life her history as an artist her accomplishments as a naturalist and the contextual factors affecting her writing and illustrations Others investigate the timelessness of this story exploring its psychological and sociological truths and comparing Peter Rabbit to present day literature Through the Eyes of a Child Donna E. Norton, 1987 Children's Books and Their Creators Anita Silvey, 1995 Unique in its coverage of contemporary American children's literature this timely single volume reference covers the books our children are or should be reading now from board books to young adult novels Enriched with dozens of color illustrations and the voices of authors and illustrators themselves it is a cornucopia of delight 23 color 153 b w illustrations Fairy-Tale TV Jill Terry Rudy, Pauline Greenhill, 2020-07-02 This concise and accessible critical introduction examines the world of popular fairy tale television tracing how fairy tales and their social and cultural implications manifest within series television events anthologies and episodes and as freestanding motifs Providing a model of televisual analysis Rudy and Greenhill emphasize that fairy tale longevity in general and particularly on TV results from malleability morphing from extremely complex narratives to the simple quotation of a name like Cinderella or phrase like happily ever after as well as its perennial value as a form that is good to think with The global reach and popularity of fairy tales is reflected in the book's selection of diverse examples from genres such as political lifestyle reality and science fiction TV With a select mediagraphy discussion questions and detailed bibliography for further study this book is an ideal guide for students and scholars of television studies popular culture and media studies as well as dedicated fairy tale fans Animal Encounters Susan Crane, 2012-11-29 Traces of the living animal run across the entire corpus of medieval writing and reveal how pervasively animals mattered in medieval thought and practice In fascinating scenes of cross species encounters a raven offers St Cuthbert a lump of lard that waterproofs his visitor's boots for a whole year a scholar finds inspiration for his studies in his cat's perfect focus on killing mice and a dispossessed knight wins back his heritage only to give it up again in order to save the life of his warhorse Readers have often taken such encounters to be merely figurative or fanciful but Susan Crane discovers that these scenes of interaction are firmly grounded in the intimate cohabitation with animals that characterized every medieval milieu from palace to village The animal encounters of medieval literature reveal their full meaning only when we recover the living animal's place within the written animal The grip of a certain humanism was strong in medieval Britain as it is today the humanism that conceives animals in diametrical opposition to humankind Yet medieval writing was far from univocal in this regard Latin and vernacular works abound in other ways of thinking about animals that invite the saint the scholar and the knight to explore how bodies and minds interpenetrate across species lines Crane brings these other ways of thinking to light in her readings of the beast fable the hunting treatise the saint's life the bestiary and other genres Her substantial contribution to the field of animal studies investigates how animals and people interact in culture making how conceiving the animal is integral to conceiving the human and how cross species encounters transform both their animal and their human participants
