emerge Kohon's book makes compelling reading for psychoanalysts psychotherapists art therapists literary and art critics academics students and all those interested in the matter of the aesthetic

A Handbook to the Reception of Classical Mythology Vanda Zajko, Helena Hoyle, 2017-03-16 A Handbook to the Reception of Classical Mythology presents a collection of essays that explore a wide variety of aspects of Greek and Roman myths and their critical reception from antiquity to the present day Reveals the importance of mythography to the survival dissemination and popularization of classical myth from the ancient world to the present day Features chronologically organized essays that address different sets of myths that were important in each historical era along with their thematic relevance Features chronologically organized essays that address different sets of myths that were important in each historical era along with their thematic relevance Offers a series of carefully selected in depth readings including both popular and less well known examples

Productive failure Alpesh Kantilal Patel, 2017-07-21 This title sets out to write new transnational South Asian art histories to make visible histories of artworks that remain marginalised within the discipline of art history However this is done through a deliberate productive failure specifically by not upholding the strictly genealogical approach that is regularly assumed for South Asian art histories For instance one chapter explores the abstract work of Cy Twombly and Natvar Bhavsar The author examines whiteness the invisible ground upon which racialized art histories often pivot as a fraught yet productive site for writing art history This book also provides original commentary on how queer theory can deconstruct and provide new approaches for writing art history Overall this title provides methods for generating art history that acknowledge the complex web of factors within which art history is produced and the different forms of knowledge production we might count as art history

Mirror Affect Cristina Albu, 2016-12-07 For decades contemporary artworks with reflective properties have stimulated public forms of spectatorship According to Cristina Albu these artworks which can include elements such as mirrors live video feedback or sensors draw attention to affective interdependence and mechanisms of social control In Mirror Affect Albu provides a historical account of mirroring processes in contemporary art and offers insight into the phenomenological and sociopolitical concerns that have inspired artists to stage processes of affective perceptual and behavioral mirroring between art viewers Beginning with the 1960s Albu charts the rise of interpersonal modes of art spectatorship She reveals contemporary artists strategic use of reflective and responsive interfaces to instill doubt in visual representation and appeal to active scrutiny of the changing social dynamics She suggests that the mirroring processes envisioned by contemporary artists such as Joan Jonas Dan Graham Lynn Hershman Leeson Olafur Eliasson and Rafael Lozano Hemmer trigger visual disjunctions to upset narcissistic inclinations They invite viewers to see themselves in relation to others and to ponder their role within complex social systems From sculpture and performance to art and technology projects video art and installation art Mirror Affect analyzes forms of interpersonal spectatorship revising and expanding current historiographies of participatory art

Anish Kapoor : svayambh : Musée des beaux-arts de Nantes [1 juin - 1 septembre 2007], 2007 Anish Kapoor Anish

Kapoor, Homi K. Bhabha, Pier Luigi Tazzi, 1998 Anish Kapoor is an internationally acclaimed artist who came to prominence in the 1980s His sculptures invoke the sublime and provoke an intense spiritual and physical response A wide range of Kapoor's work is featured in this book including sculptures in which he explores the concept of the void Kapoor cuts deep into blocks of stone sometimes coating the interior surfaces with a rich pigment transforming the void into a charged dark space He also works with reflective surfaces which appear to engulf the viewer and the surrounding space

50 Contemporary Artists

You Should Know Brad Finger, Christiane Weidemann, 2011 This survey of great contemporary artists is the perfect introduction to the exciting world of art today Artists working after the Second World War faced a confounding array of challenges as stylistic barriers were broken technology advanced and issues of sexuality and race came to the forefront From painters and photographers to sculptors and performance artists fifty of the most influential contemporary artists are profiled in this colorful and engaging book that traces the various artistic movements and radical changes of the second half of the twentieth and early twentyfirst centuries Presented chronologically each artist is featured in 2 or 4 page spreads that include brilliant reproductions of their most important works an illuminating biography key dates in their career and informative background on major developments in the art world Throughout the volume a timeline places each artist within the context of contemporary art As diverse and inspiring as the artists themselves this book is a voyage of discovery into art's cutting edge

Anish Kapoor Anish Kapoor, 2008-05-23 This book surveys Anish Kapoor's work since 1979 with a focus on sculptures and installations made since the early 1990s With more than ninety color images of these ambitious and complex works three original essays an extended interview with Kapoor and selections from his sketchbooks this book confirms Anish Kapoor's place as one of the most remarkable sculptors working today

Anish Kapoor Anish Kapoor, Sandhini Poddar, Deutsche Guggenheim Berlin, 2008 Since the early 1980s Anish Kapoor's investigations into objecthood materiality and gravity have explored the concept of the void or what he describes as objects becoming space His sculptures installations and public art have been characterized by intensely tactile or reflective materials including coloured pigments wax fibreglass polished stainless steel and PVC that resist any narrative reading Deutsche Guggenheim's ambitious commission opens to the public in October 2008 and travels to New York in 2009 It is conceived as an intervention in the galleries that prevents any one complete viewing or experience of the work Fabricated of Cor Ten steel with industrial hinges and flanges exposed the work tests the boundaries between sculpture and painting as one opening brings viewers into a cavernous expansive paint field This accompanying catalogue offers four points of entry into the work through philosophy postcolonial and architectural theory and structural analysis and is accompanied by preparatory sketches and architectural renderings
