Aligned Thinking Aligned Thinking:

Aligned Thinking James Steffen, 2006-01-12 Too much to do I never get anything done I have so little control over my life These were thoughts Ray had as he headed home later for supper confident his wife Carol would be sympathetic to his problem One sentence into unloading his problems on her he heard Too much to do Tell me about it Her problems were as big as or even bigger than his When they went to a friend for help they discovered more than hope That sounds like us several years ago But Coach Eric's Aligned Thinking not only solved those problems it helped us to do what most people believe impossible align every action to what we really want With mild hope and huge skepticism Ray and Carol visited Coach Eric and gave him a description of their ideal professional and personal life Coach Eric assured them that Aligned Thinking could help them enjoy each item on their list However when he asked them to add to their list make every moment count so life becomes a celebration Ray and Carol became even more skeptical Join Ray and Carol as they discover the proven power of Aligned Thinking

Aligned Thinking Jim Steffen, 2006-01-03 Modern life is filled with frustrations too much work too many interruptions not enough personal time and an increasing sense of losing control and meaning Aligned Thinking offers a simple sensible remedy The key lies in three questions How do I get the most from the only thing I control my actions now With the many options I have how do I stay focused on what I really want and What do I really want from life and work Written in the style of a simple fable the book invites readers to join Ray and Carol Walters as they learn to apply the techniques of Aligned Thinking to their own lives Together they discover how to understand their priorities and develop practical ways to focus on what's important Equally good for at work or at home Aligned Thinking helps partners communicate and grow closer allowing them to reduce stress and increase productivity motivation morale and most important satisfaction
