Boat People Carina Hoang, 2013 A photographic exploration of the plight of Vietnamese refugees who left their country on boats from 1975 through 1996 in search of safety and freedom Vietnamese Migrants in Australia and the Global Digital Diaspora Anh Nguyen Austen, 2022-09-16 Through oral histories memoirs and Facebook posts of Vietnamese adults who entered Australia as children after the Vietnam War and Vietnamese refugees war orphans and children of refugees this book provides insight into the memories of forced migrant childhoods and histories as well as the complexities of national and transnational identity and belonging in digital diaspora As war and displacement compounds the need for creating communities and histories for cultural continuity this book is a history about childhood and migration for the Vietnamese diaspora of refugees adoptees and second generation in Australia and their connectedness to a global and digital diaspora Using Facebook as a digital archive for historical research Vietnamese Migrants in Australia and the Global Digital Diaspora presents new methods for the study of what Nguyen Austen proposes as a new area of digital diaspora studies for interdisciplinary research about real and digital life in the humanities and social sciences As a contemporary digital diaspora study of Vietnamese forced child migrants from 1975 to the present this book contains a mixed methods historical analysis of the impact of war and displacement on memories of childhood This book presents an innovative history of the national transnational digital and contemporaneous lives of Vietnamese child migrants which will make a significant contribution to the discourse on transnational childhood migration and belonging for refugees and migrants in the twenty first century

Refugee Pathways to Peace Janet Mancini Billson, 2024-12-15 This book provides perspectives from different refugee groups and the resettlement agencies that smooth their transition into a new life context It discusses how they overcome displacement and cope with trauma and how they remain vulnerable to marginality and delays in economic independence

Refugee Journeys Jordana Silverstein, Rachel Stevens, 2021-02-04 Refugee Journeys presents stories of how governments the public and the media have responded to the arrival of people seeking asylum and how these responses have impacted refugees and their lives Mostly covering the period from 1970 to the present the chapters provide readers with an understanding of the political social and historical contexts that have brought us to the current day This engaging collection of essays also considers possible ways to break existing policy deadlocks encouraging readers to imagine a future where we carry vastly different ideas about refugees government policies and national identities Vietnamese Exodus 40th Anniversary The archive Boat people, 2015-04-29 It is a literary collection of Vietnamese boat people and boat people experience in different South East Asian refugee camps during Vietnamese Exodus from 1975 1996 The Vietnamese Boat People, 1954 and 1975-1992 Nghia M. Vo, 2015-09-18 The biggest diaspora in Vietnamese history occurred between 1975 and 1992 when more than two million people fled by boat to escape North Vietnam s oppressive communist regime Before this well known exodus from Vietnam s shores however there was a massive population shift within the country In 1954 one million fled from north to south to escape war famine and the communist land reform campaign Many of these refugees went on to flee Vietnam altogether in the 1970s and 1980s and the experiences of 1954 influenced the later diaspora in other ways as well This book reassesses the causes and dynamics of the 1975 92 diaspora It begins with a discussion of Vietnam from 1939 to 1954 then looks closely at the 1954 Operation Exodus and the subsequent resettlements From here the focus turns to the later events that drove hundreds of thousands of Vietnamese to flee their homeland in 1975 and the years that followed Planning for escape choosing routes facing pirates at sea and surviving the refugee camps are among the many topics covered Stories of individual escapees are provided throughout The book closes with a look at the struggles and achievements of the resettled Vietnamese

Voices of Vietnamese Boat People Mary Terrell Cargill, Jade Quang Huynh, 2000-03-15 On April 30 1975 the Hanoi government of North Vietnam took control over the South South Vietnamese particularly intellectuals and those thought to have been associated with the previous regime underwent terrible punishment persecution and re education Seeking their freedom thousands of South Vietnamese took to the sea in rickety boats often with few supplies and faced the dangers of nature pirates and starvation While the sea and its danger claimed many lives those who made it to the refugee camps still faced struggle and hardships in their quest for freedom Here are collected the narratives of nineteen men and women who survived the ordeal of escape by sea Today they live in the United States as students professors entrepreneurs scientists and craftspeople who have chosen to tell the stories of their struggles and their triumph Each narrative is accompanied by biographical information Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here

Stories of the Vietnamese Boat People T. D. R. Thomason, 1979 The New Americans James Haskins, 1980-01-01 Discusses the mass exodus from Vietnam as a result of the war and describes the lives of the Vietnamese who found refuge in the United States

Limbo Mike Kendellen, 2023-11-03 In LIMBO part history and part memoir Mike Kendellen chronicles one of the most remarkable international refugee programs ever the Vietnamese boat people saga After the Vietnam War concluded in April 1975 refugees arrived in Southeast Asia and Hong Kong for the next sixteen years Mike recounts how after serving in the Peace Corps he ended up in Malaysia and at Galang Refugee Camp in Indonesia with the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees national governments the US Department of State the Vietnamese NGOs and lawyers amid the Cold War As an aid worker he taught English and directed the education programs After Indonesia he traveled to Vietnam to understand its vocational training structure and negotiate with government officials to start a project in the Mekong Delta for those returning after spending years in camps

Risking Death to Find Freedom Vu Nguy, 2005

To Distant Shores Huan Phan, Tiep Phan, 2022-08-15 To Distant Shores is a memoir of one family's experience of war escape and resettlement from Vietnam to the United States after the Fall of Saigon in 1975 Told in alternating chapters through the perspectives of a military father with firsthand experience of the war and its aftermath and his young son whose innocence and limited understanding of the unfolding events leave him free to observe all manner of life from the comic to the tragic The book also interweaves the historical background of the momentous events taking place at the time including cameos by some of the major players known personally to the Phan family Yet ultimately the story rests on the very palpable and personal stories of the two narrators the father Ti p Phan and the son and lead author of the book Hu n Phan What emerges is an inspiring story of family and survival a celebration of culture and an examination of how culture family and history shape us and combine to form identity

The Vietnamese Boat People David Maruyama,2013 The Ashes of War M. H. Murphy,2017-10-30 In this powerful work about the tragic aftermath of the Vietnam War author MH Murphy presents the stories of Vietnamese people who fled their beloved country and those who stayed behind and endured creating a new life in their ever changing country The Ashes of War begins in Saigon in April of 1975 just before its surrender to the Communists With the war over the victors set about punishing the vanquished The policies rules and laws enacted by the new government made many South Vietnamese feel targeted and lit the fuse for an exodus unlike any other Over two decades more than two and a half million Vietnamese people fled their country some overland but most by water in anything that would float This created the greatest humanitarian crises in modern history and coined a new term recognized all over the world Boat People Those who stayed behind to create a new life in the Socialist Republic of Vietnam endured unthinkable hardships changes and re education Charged controversial and incredibly prescient and this book tells stories of the Vietnamese people at the end of and after the war It speaks for the millions of Vietnamese who have had little voice and still decades later suffer the fate of what happened after Black April April 30 1975

Farewell Vietnam, a Time to Remember ,2017 In 1954 Vietnam was split into two parts The North under the Communist regime The South the Free world Joseph left North Vietnam with his parents and siblings in the Great Vietnamese Exodus for the South As an eight year old boy knowing nothing about politics he trusted totally in his parents decision They resettled in the South and enjoyed a peaceful life Unfortunately it did not last long The war erupted a few years after when the North formed the New Front and started the bloodshed this time between brothers sisters of the same motherland Their goal was to put the entire country under the communist regime As a student living in the capital Joseph did not know much about the war until July 1972 when he graduated the war reached its peak Assigned to be the leader of a field surgical team providing services to the military units close to the Demilitarized Zone Joseph had the opportunity to witness with his own eyes the horrendous damages the war had done to the soldiers Every day flight after flight poured down the newly recruited soldiers to this airport They were from 17 or 18 years old voluntarily registered into these elite units The airplanes brought them to this airport Cars after cars were waiting at the airport ready to take them straight to the front line It was so heartbreaking to see them leaving the airport on those GMCs heading to the burning front line Only a hundred feet away from the place they took off in a big tin roofed warehouse many of their fellow combatants were laid down in the coffins wrapped in the national flag rows after rows until there was no more room for them No matter how old they were and what unit they belonged they all laid down here and waited day after day They waited for their flights home Farewell Vietnam March 1975 pushing its army through the DMZ the North invaded and finally took over The South on April 30 1975 The gunshots stopped the bloodshed ceased but real peace never happened Joseph and the people in the South faced a hostile and revengeful policy Its officers and employees were sent to the re education camps for forced labors Their properties were confiscated their families were sent to the jungles for what called the new economic zones My screaming in the middle of the night awakened everybody Some minutes after the entire medical staff rushed to our rescue But as soon as they reached the doorway they were totally immobilized like the stone statues stunned at seeing the spectacle that was so horrible to the point that no one dared to move retold in Farewell Vietnam about a depressed and ill POW who had tried a suicide attempt by hanging himself Suffering atrocities and vicious policies implemented by the cruel Northern victors people started to flee out of the country by boat This created The Second Vietnamese Exodus which brought almost a million Vietnamese to all over the world besides hundreds of thousands died of starving drown raped or killed in the ocean The heat and the odor coming from human bodies

the sweat soiled clothes that had not been washed for weeks the odor of urine all combined to create a very disgusting odor that made me feel nausea the really small size of the cell fifteen feet long by ten feet wide contained more than thirty people Prison under the police system Farewell Vietnam shows readers the true communist heaven where there s not enough food to eat no medicine to take and no proper clothing to wear The war brought both sides pain bloodshed with millions of deaths and many more cripples When it stopped the communist s arrogance and ignorance transformed the whole country into a big prison where no one had a decent human life Joseph had to say Farewell to his Motherland and left Vietnam not with his parents and siblings like in 1954 but this time with his own family to a country chosen to be their new homeland with unforgettable memories

Among the Boat People: A Memoir of Vietnam Nhi Manh Chung, 2019-07-23 The Girl in the White Ship Peter Townsend, 1983 Story of a 13 year old s escape from Vietnam in an unseaworthy boat her shipwreck and battle for survival against all odds Daughter of the Sea Hiep Thi Le, 2021-10-22 An unforgettable Voyage Memoir of an 8 year old boat person who flees post war communist Vietnam in search of a father and brother rumoured to have escaped to the West Braving sea storms and pirates in a overloaded fi shing boat Hiep and her younger sister are rescued by British sailors and interned in a series of horrifi c Hong Kong refugee camps Surviving by their wits these displaced children of the sea create their own primitive society amid the dispirited and desperate adults awaiting sponsors in the U S At the age of eight in 1979 the Vietnam born actress and her seven years old sister were separated from their parents and left their village in central Vietnam as boat people Their mother and older brother stayed behind with her other children The sisters lived in refugee camps in Hong Kong for three months where they were reunited with their father They then immigrated to California before reuniting with their fi ve other siblings Her mother fi nally reunited with the family four years later Hiep was a premed student at UC Davis majoring in physiology when she came to the open casting call with one of her sisters for the Oliver Stone fi lm Heaven Earth 1993 that was being held at San Jose State University because several of her friends were doing it for fun She was one of the sixteen thousand Vietnamese Americans seen by casting scouts for the fi lm and was the one out of the thousands who got the starring role of Le Ly Hayslip Despite having no acting experience she had half dozen callbacks before she was fi nally chosen to play the role of Le Ly Hayslip between the ages of thirteen to thirty eight Since that time She acted in several fi lms and television shows She has graduated from college She was the owner and operator of the China Beach Vietnamese Bistro in Venice California She is now owner and Chef of Le Cellier Restaurant Wine Bar in Marina Del Rey California complications from stomach cancer on Dec 19 2017 in Los Angeles Hiep passed away She was 46 Above all Hiep is the proud mother of two Author Hiep Thi Le Co founder Jill Powell Since I ve know her from Hiep always turned something negative into a positive As a child she faced her dangers adversities and self doubts with an innocence and sense of adventure which refl ects the true resilience of refugee children separated from their families and left to fend for themselves Le Ly Hayslip Heaven and Earth Most of us come of age not just once but many times as we navigate life's passages Hiep's harrowing true life journey from innocent village girl to street wise refugee told with charm humor and precocious wisdom turns a boat person's Lord of the Flies into a true Vietnamese Exodus the portrait of a blossoming young American painted with a bamboo brush Like a river flowing to the sea Hiep's story sweeps us past many amazing people places and events that most of us can scarcely imagine It's a voyage you won't want to miss Jay Wurts coauthor of When Heaven and Earth Changed Places

Lost in Vietnam, Found in America Michael H Cunningham, 2021-05-11 Michael H Cunningham author of the bestseller Walking Point An Infantryman's Untold Story served as an infantryman in Vietnam with the Americal Division from 1968 to 1969 He retired from the United States Customs Service in 2007 after an almost thirty year career fighting the battle against drug smuggling and terrorism Upon retirement he began his lifelong desire to write Lost in Vietnam Found in America is his fifth book Based on his true life experiences the author tells the story of Vietnamese refugees fleeing their country Seeking a better life for themselves and their children the refugees flee on small rickety boats Sailing on uncharted waters they face inhumane conditions typhoons starvation sinking and Thai pirates Although the number is uncertain it is safe to say thousands met their fate on these turbulent waters The stories of some of those who made a successful landfall are related in this book
