Bodies in Technology Don Ihde, 2002 New technologies suggest new ideas about embodiment our reach extends to global sites through the Internet we enter cyberspace through the engines of virtual reality In this book a leading philosopher of technology explores the meaning of bodies in technology how the sense of our bodies and of our orientation in the world is affected by the various information technologies Bodies in Technology begins with an analysis of embodiment in cyberspace then moves on to consider ways in which social theorists have interpreted or overlooked these conditions An astute and sensible judge of these theories Don Ihde is a uniquely provocative and helpful guide through contemporary thinking about technology and embodiment drawing on sources and examples as various as video games popular films the workings of e mail and virtual reality techniques Charting the historical philosophical and practical territory between virtual reality and real life this work is an important contribution to the national conversation on the impact technology and information technology in particular has on our lives in a wired global age     Digital Bodies Susan Broadhurst, Sara Price, 2017-10-12 This book explores technologies related to bodily interaction and creativity from a multi disciplinary perspective By taking such an approach the collection offers a comprehensive view of digital technology research that both extends our notions of the body and creativity through a digital lens and informs of the role of technology in practices central to the arts and humanities Crucially Digital Bodies foregrounds creativity the interrogation of technologies and the notion of embodiment within the various disciplines of art design performance and social science In doing so it explores a potential or virtual new sense of the embodied self This book will appeal to academics practitioners and those with an interest in not only how digital technologies affect the body but also how they can enhance human creativity     Bodies of Technology Ann Rudinow Saetnan, Nelly Oudshoorn, Marta Stefania Maria Kirejczyk, 2000 This work is based on a concern for women s health and autonomy and on the premise that technology and society mutually shape one another A basic question is one of cultural appropriation Do technologies take on different shapes different practices and have different impacts as they spread from one place to another By juxtaposing a number of culturally and historically contextualized studies of similar technologies the editors demonstrate that although technologies globalize by spreading among cultures they are also localized by the cultures they encounter     Bodies of Tomorrow Sherryl Vint, 2007-01-01 Bodies of Tomorrow argues for the importance of challenging visions of humanity in the future that overlook our responsibility as embodied beings connected to a material world     Technology of petroleum, by H. Neuburger and H. Noalhat, tr. by J.G. McIntosh Henry Neuburger, 1901     Bodies in Code Mark B. N. Hansen, 2012-10-02 Bodies in Code explores how our bodies experience and adapt to digital environments Cyberculture theorists have tended to overlook biological reality when talking about virtual reality and Mark B N Hansen s book shows what they ve been missing Cyberspace is anchored in the body he argues and it s the body not high tech computer graphics that allows a person to feel like they are really moving through virtual reality Of course these virtual experiences are also profoundly affecting our very understanding of what it means to live as embodied beings Hansen draws upon recent work in visual culture cognitive science and new media studies as well as examples of computer graphics websites and new media art to show how our bodies are in some ways already becoming virtual

The chemical technology of textile fibres, tr. by C. Salter Georg Cornelius T. von Georgievics, 1902 The Chemical Technology of Textile Fibres Georg von Georgievics, 1902 PREFACE IN the present volume dealing with the Chemical Technology of the Textile Fibres except as concerns the dye stuffs which will be treated in a separate work the author has been obliged to condense the available matter as much as possible in order to preserve the form of a text book Nevertheless it seemed necessary in certain cases in the interests of the book to give definite data and an exact description of individual processes In such instances the details have been gathered exclusively either from the authors personal experience or from reliable sources The most important part of the book is the chapter treating of dyeing whilst on the other hand the subject of printing had to be dealt with in a more general fashion the materials being less suitable for treatment in text book style The author thinks it desirable to point out that in the present work an attempt has been made to completely separate the chemical and mechanical technology of the subject a standpoint he considers justified by the extensive area occupied by each of these branches Hence only a few sketches of apparatus have been given and the methods of dressing the finished goods have been described very briefly since they almost entirely belong to the domain of mechanical technology GEOEG VON GEOEGIEVICS Artificial Fibres Mineral Vegetable Cellulose Cotton Bombax Cotton Vegetable Silk Flax Hemp Jute Ramie Rhea China Grass Nettle Fibre Contents include CHAPTER I THE TEXTILE FIBRES Distinguishing Tests for the Various Fibres Animal Fibres Silk Animal Hairs Sheeps Wool Goat Wool and Camel Wool Artificial Wool Wool Substitutes Conditioning CHAPTER II WASHING BLEACHING CARBONISING Washing and Bleaching Definition Bleaching Agents Cotton Bleaching PAGE iii 1 2 2 3 8 12 12 12 16 17 19 20 2 2 23 34 35 45 46 19 50 53 viii CONTENTS Linen Bleaching Ramie Bleaching Hemp Bleaching Jute Bleaching 76 Scouring and Bleaching Silk 77 Washing and Bleaching Wool 80 Blueing or White 86 Dyeing Carbonising 87 CHAPTER III MORDANTS AND MORDANTING Mordants 95 Mordanting Wool 96 Mordanting Silk 98 Mordanting Cotton 99 Alumina Mordants 102 Mordants Iron Mordants 106 Chrome 108 Tin Mordants 112 Copper and other Mordants 114 The Fixing Agents Acid Mordants 115 Tannic Acids Oleic Acids PAGE 116 122 CHAPTER IV DYEING 1 Theory of Colour Combination of Colours Dyeing to Pattern 125 2 Theory of Dyeing 130 3 Classification of Dye Stuffs Methods of Dyeing 138 Application of Acid Dye Stuffs Application of Basic v Dye Stuffs 143 Application of Direct or Substantive Cotton Dyes Dyes 146 Application of the Mordant 154 Dyeing with Cochineal 160 Dyeing with Catechu 178 Black and Blue Dyeings with Logwood on Wool 163 Turkey Red Dyeing 172 Black Dyeing Cotton with Logwood 180 The Body in Culture, Technology and Society Chris Shilling, 2004-12-02 Once in a while a manuscript stops you in your tracks What we are offered here is no recovering of old ground but a step change in perspectives on body matters that is both innovative and of fundamental importance to anyone working on this sociological terrain This text is groundbreaking and simply has to be read Acta Sociologica This is Shilling at his creative best these are seminal observations of the classical theories drawn together as never before Moreover as a framework this monograph provides a genuinely new and fertile way of reconsidering not just classical sociology but contemporary forms as well Sport Education Society This is a comprehensive theoretically sophisticated and ambitious treatise on the body that draws from and applies both classical and contemporary sociological theory in a manner that is innovative and thought provoking This book is engaging and thought provoking but Shilling s greatest achievement is his ability to illustrate the importance and continued relevance of classical and contemporary sociological theory to real world concerns It is a book worthy of widespread attention It reinvigorated my interest in the sociological classics and contained countless nuggets of interesting information that led me to conclude that it would be a worthy book to recommend to a broad sociological audience Teaching Sociology Shilling s book like his earlier The Body and Social Theory is crucial reading a further valuable contribution in a field where he has provided so much Theory Psychology This is an impressive book by one of the leading social theorists working in the field of body studies It provides a critical summation of theoretical and substantive work in the field to date while also presenting a powerful argument for a corporeal realism in which the body is both generative of the emergent properties of social structure and a location of their effects Its scope and originality make it a key point of reference for students and academics in body studies and in the social and cultural sciences more generally Ian Burkitt Reader in Social Science University of Bradford Chris Shilling is as always a lucid guide through the dense thickets of the sociology of the body and his chapters on the fields of work sport eating music and technology brilliantly show how abstract theoretical debates relate to the real world of people s lives Professor Stephen Mennell University College Dublin What I find very useful and without any doubt valuable not only in Shilling s The Body in Culture Technology and Society but in his work in general is the breadth and profoundness of his discussion about the body the style Shilling maintains is crucial for further development of the sociology of the body as a discipline for it provides us with a rich intellectual environment about the body Sociology For any colleague wanting to have a clear idea of how studies of the body can be empirically grounded as well as theoretically rich Chris Shilling s The Body in Culture Technology and Society is the book to read To my mind it offers the best account thus far of not only how social action is embodied and must be recognised as such but also of how social structures condition and shape embodied subjects in a variety of social arenas This is wonderful insightful stuff the ideas and intricate thoughts of a scholar such as Shilling who has been immersed in thinking about the complexities of the body in society as well as sociology for a number of years Sociology of Health and Illness This is a milestone in the sociology of the body The book offers the most comprehensive overview of the field to date and an innovative framework for the analysis of embodiment It is founded on a revised view of the relation of classical works to the body It argues that the body should be read as a multi dimensional medium for the constitution of society Upon this foundation the author constructs a series of analyses of the body and the economy culture sociality work sport music food and technology
