

The image features three sculptures of human figures, likely a family (two adults and a child), constructed from thousands of thin, dark, rectangular stone slabs stacked horizontally. The figures are positioned on a bed of similar stone chips. The background is a plain, light-colored wall. The sculptures are arranged in a row, with the largest figure on the left, a medium-sized figure in the center, and a smaller figure on the right. The slabs are stacked to create a textured, layered effect, giving the figures a sense of volume and form. The overall composition is minimalist and focuses on the material and form of the sculptures.
