Body And Gift Reflections Jn Creations Pope John Paul Iis:

The Virgin Mary and Theology of the Body Donald H. Calloway, M.I.C., 2014-06-25 The Church's Marian beliefs have constantly shed light on other teachings and the Theology of the Body is no exception. In this compilation of essays some of the world's most foremost Mariologists and experts on the Theology of the Body share their insights on how Mary illuminates the message of the Theology of the Body in a profound way. As the Mother of God Mary provided Jesus with His body that would be offered on the cross for our redemption. She bore witness to His bodily resurrection and ascension and she herself was assumed bodily into heaven. Through an understanding of Mary's role in salvation history we are able to see more clearly our personal roles in the Christian life. In this book you will learn about The nuptial meaning of the body in the marriage of Joseph and Mary. The Immaculate Conception and the human person. The significance of Mary as virgin and mother. The Virgin Mary and the culture of life. The image of God in the image of Mary as model Christian. Conjugal Chastity in Pope Wojtyla Ailbe M. O'Reilly, 2010. Conjugal Chastity in Pope Wojtyla explains how Karol Wojtyla, philosopher, theologian and Pope tried to show how the sexual act within the context of marriage is an expression of love. After explaining how love as goodwill is the foundation of conjugal love the correct relationship between love and justice is clarified. The negative dimension of the personalistic norm of Wojtyla is then critically examined. Conjugal love is explained in terms of conjugal beneficence based on conjugal benevolence. This love leads to total self giving in each conjugal act. The procreative meaning of the conjugal act seems to be its most formal element the soul of the act so to speak. The unitive element is described as an essential property of this act something which necessarily flows from the conjugal act which is open to life. Chastity is the virtue that allows sexuality to be integrated into a love which is truly personal and reflects Trinitarian Love.

Creation and Covenant Christopher Roberts, 2008-11-01 Does sexual difference matter for marriage? Are there good theological reasons why the two main characters in a marriage should be a male and a female or is marriage a more flexible covenant which any two people can keep? Creation and Covenant analyzes latent but under examined beliefs about sexual difference in the theology about marriage which has been dominant for centuries in the Christian west. The book opens by studying patristic theologies of marriage which rested on mostly implicit and often incompatible beliefs about sexual difference. However Roberts argues that Augustine developed a coherent theology of sexual difference according it a shifting significance from creation to eschaton. Roberts traces how Augustine's theology influenced and was developed by subsequent theologians such as Bernard of Clairvaux, Luther, Barth and John Paul II. Finally Roberts engages today's debates about gay marriage. Before becoming an academic Dr. Roberts was a journalist. On behalf of PBS television he covered both the Lambeth Conference in England and the World Council of Churches in Zimbabwe. During those years he was disappointed by both the liberal and conservative arguments on homosexuality. Left wingers seemed more interested in privacy, autonomy and experience than in theology and right wingers seemed to have lots of prohibitions but little good news. In the final chapters this book tries to do better inviting liberals to improve the standard of their arguments and explaining what is beautiful and persuasive about the traditional case The New Catholic Feminism Tina Beattie,2004-06-01 It is hard to over estimate the challenge that feminism poses to Roman Catholicism Pope John Paul II s call for a new feminism has led to the development of a Catholic theological response to the so called old feminism The New Catholic Feminism sets up a dramatic encounter between the orthodox Catholic establishment and contemporary critical theory including feminist theology and philosophy queer theory and French psycholinguistics in order to explore fundamental questions about human identity personhood and gender From the naked bodies of Eden to the gay nuptials of liturgy it argues that the strange and volatile world of Catholic sexual symbolism cannot be tamed to meet the ideological agendas of either feminist theology or conservative Catholicism Only through a radical re evaluation of the sacramental significance of the sexed human body might the Catholic Church provide a redemptive response to the sexual politics of contemporary society New Catholic Feminism Tina Beattie,2006 Having confronted the conflict between feminism and the Vatican and Pope Benedict XVI Beattie proposes a new theological approach to the encounter between feminism and Catholicism for the twenty first century Jacket Faith and Social Justice in the Teaching of Pope John Paul II Gerard Beigel,1997 The nature of the relationship between Christian faith and social justice continues to challenge contemporary theological reflection This study examines Pope John Paul II s understanding of the principle first formulated in the 1971 Synod document Justice in the World that action for social justice is an essential part of the gospel It clearly demonstrates that John Paul s teaching on faith and social justice is rooted in his philosophical and theological anthropology specifically his emphasis on the person revealed in action This study highlights the unique contribution of John Paul s vision of the person to Catholic social teaching in general and to the relationship between faith and social justice in particular The Legacy of Pope John Paul II John F.
