Body Capital Masculinities Contemporary American:

The Body as Capital Vinodh Venkatesh, 2015-12-10 Through economic liberalization and the untethering of labor and production markets masculinity as hegemon has entered a crisis stage Renegotiated labor and familial orders have triggered a widespread cultural renegotiation of how masculinity operates and is represented This holds especially true in Latin America Addressing this Vinodh Venkatesh uses contemporary Latin American literature to examine how masculinity is constructed and conceived The Body as Capital centers socioeconomic and political concerns anxieties and paradigms on the male anatomy and on the matrices of masculinities presented in fiction Developing concepts such as the market of masculinities and the transnational theater of masculinities the author explains how contemporary fiction centers the male body and masculine expressions as key components in the relationship between culture space and global tensile forces Venkatesh includes novels by canonical and newer writers from Mexico Central America the Caribbean Peru and Chile He focuses on texts produced after 1990 coinciding with what has popularly been termed the neoliberal experiment In addition to probing well known novels such as La fiesta del Chivo and La mujer habitada and their accompanying body of criticism The Body as Capital defines and examines several masculine tropes that will be of interest to scholars of contemporary Latin American literature and gender studies Ultimately Venkatesh argues for a more holistic approximation of discursive gender that will feed into other angles of criticism forging a new path in the critical debates over gender and sexuality in Latin American writing

Capitán Latinoamérica Vinodh Venkatesh, 2020-10-01 Capitán Latinoamérica is the first study to examine the unique contribution of Latin American cinema television and web series to the global superhero boom Through an analysis of superhero themed media from Mexico to Argentina Vinodh Venkatesh argues that contemporary Latin American superheroes are a hybrid of regional tropes and figures such as the famed luchador El Chapulín Colorado and North American blockbuster characters from the DC and Marvel universes These superheroes channel anxieties specific to their respective national contexts In Chile for example Mirageman rehashes and works through the Pinochet dictatorship and its traumatic aftermath in Honduras Chinche Man confronts neoliberalism and gang violence In Colombia's El Man in turn rapid urbanization and drug cartels are the central concerns whereas corruption and the political machinations of the state feature most prominently in the television and web series Capitán Centroamérica. While the Latin American superhero genre may be superficially characterized by low budgets and kitsch aesthetics, it also poses profound challenges to the social, political and economic status quo. Covering a wide variety of media bookended by wrestling films from the early 1960s and multimedia productions from the 2010s, Capitán Latinoamérica offers a comprehensive introduction to and assessment of the state of the superhero in Latin America.

Gender and Memory in the Postmillennial Novels of Almudena Grandes

Lorraine Ryan, 2021-04-22. Almudena Grandes is one of Spain's foremost women's writers, having sold over 1.1 million copies of her Episodios de una guerra interminable her six volume series that ranges from the Spanish Civil War to the democratic period. The myriad prizes awarded to her 18 in total confirm her pre-eminence. This book situates Grandes's novels within gendered philosophical and mnemonic theoretical concepts that illuminate hidden dimensions of her much-studied work. Lorraine Ryan considers and expands on existing critical work on Grandes's oeuvre, proposing new avenues of interpretation and understanding. She seeks to debunk the arguments of those who portray Grandes as the proponent of a sectarian, eminently biased Republican memory by analysing the wide variety of gender and perpetrator memories that proliferate in her work. The intersection of perpetrator memory with masculinity, ecocriticism, medical ethics and the child's perspectives confirms Grandes's nuanced engagement with Spanish memory culture. Departing from a philosophical basis, Ryan reconfigures the Republican victim in the novels as a vulnerable subject who attempts to flourish, thus refuting the current critical opinion of the victim as overly empowered. The new perspectives produced in this monograph do not aim to suggest that Grandes is an advocate of perpetrator memory; rather, it suggests that Grandes is committed to a more pluralistic idea of memory culture whereby her novels generate understanding of multiple victim, perpetrator and gender memories, an analysis that produces new and meaningful engagements with these novels. Thus, Ryan contends that Grandes's historical novels are infinitely more complex and nuanced than heretofore conceived.

Masculinity and Modern Slavery in Nepal

Matthew Maycock, 2018-12-07. South Asia is the region with the highest number of slaves globally according to the Global Slavery Index. Bonded labour affects between 15 and 20 million labourers within the region and is shaped by locally specific interconnections between ethnicity, class, caste and critically gender structures. Masculinity and Modern Slavery in Nepal explores the role of masculinity in shaping the structures and experience of slavery and subsequent freedom. While many I NGOs and human rights organisations use freedom from slavery as a powerful and emotive goal, the lived reality of freedom for many bonded labourers often results in disappointment and frustration as they navigate diverse expectations of masculinity. Taking Nepal as a case study, the book illustrates how men's gendered experiences of bondedness and freedom can inform perspectives on the transition to freedom and modernity in South Asia more broadly. Researchers of modern slavery, gender studies and South Asian studies will be interested in the rich analysis on offer in this book.

Unleashing Manhood in the Cage Christian A. Vaccaro,Melissa L. Swauger,2015-11-11 Unleashing Manhood in the Cage Masculinity and Mixed Martial Arts addresses the question Why do mixed martial arts participants endure grueling workouts and suffer through injury with little or no pay just to compete The answer is because the participants enjoy a form of idolization from their supporters each other and culture more generally which is linked to masculinity In fact MMA organizers from the very beginning purposefully created elements of the sport that are linked to dominant narratives about manhood In this context men don thin open fingered gloves lock themselves in a caged enclosure and slug it out in a fight with few rules to see who comes out on top This all occurs while ring girls in high heels and skin tight shirts and shorts stride around outside the cage holding signs and peddling t shirts The sum of these elements is the creation of a type of a publicly accessible and consumable form of masculinity The sport of mixed martial arts is a rich and intriguing space where the construction of gender can be explored through a sociological and ethnographic lens builds upon the award winning first edition to further illuminate fathers candid reflections on caring and the intricate social worlds that men and women inhabit as they love and let go of their children. Including interviews with over one hundred fathers from truck drivers to insurance salesmen physicians to artists Doucet illustrates how men are breaking the mould of traditional parenting models. This edition expands her argument wider and deeper building on changes to the theoretical work that informs the field her own intellectual trajectory and the fieldwork of revisiting six fathers and their partners a decade after her initial interviews. She continues to examine key questions such as What leads fathers to trade earning for caring How do fathers navigate through the maternal worlds of mothers and infants Are men mothering or are they redefining fatherhood. In asking and unravelling the question Do men mother this study tells a compelling story about Canadian parents radically re-envisioning child care and domestic responsibilities in the twenty first century.

The Problem Body Sally Chivers, Nicole Markotic, 2010 In The Problem Body editors Sally Chivers and Nicole Markotic bring together the work of eleven of the best disability scholars from the US the UK Canada and South Korea to explore a new approach to the study of film by concentrating on cinematic representations of what they term the problem body. The book is a much needed exploration of the projection of disability on film combined with a much needed rethinking of hierarchies of difference. The editors turned to the existing corpus of disability theory with its impressive insights about the social and cultural mediation of disabled bodies. They then sought from scholars at every stage of their careers new ideas about how disabled bodies coexist with a range of other bodies gendered queered racialized classed etc. To call into question why certain bodies invite the label problem more frequently than other bodies the contributors draw on scholarship from feminist race queer cultural studies disability and film studies arenas. In Chivers and Markotic's introduction they draw on disability theory and a range of cinematic examples to explain the term problem body in relation to its projection. In explorations of film noir illness narratives classical Hollywood film and French film the essays reveal the problem body as a multiplication of lived circumstances constructed both physically and socially.
