Body Invaders Arthur Kroker, Marilouise Kroker, 1987 Body Invaders Marilouise Kroker, 1988 Body Invaders explores the fate of the body in the postmodern condition Introduced by theses on power and sexuality it proceeds to analyze the key theoretical contributions of Bataille Foucault Baudrillard and Kristeva and ranges widely over the suppressions and obsessions which mark theoretical discourse and public policy in relation to sexual eroticism fashion reproduction and bodily decay Mediapolis Sam Inkinen, 2012-01-19 No detailed description available for Mediapolis Emotion and Social Theory Simon Williams, 2001-02-27 The emotions have traditionally been marginalized in mainstream social theory This book demonstrates the problems that this has caused and charts the resurgence of emotions in social theory today Drawing on a wide variety of sources both classical and contemporary Simon Williams treats the emotions as a universal feature of human life and our embodied relationship to the world He reflects and comments upon the turn towards the body and intimacy in social theory and explains what is important in current thinking about emotions In his doing so readers are provided with a critical assessment of various positions within the field including the strengths and weaknesses of poststructuralism and postmodernism for examination Postmodernism. What moment? Pelagia Goulimari, 2024-06-04 This collection assembles many of the major theorists of postmodernism across the humanities and the social sciences to reconsider the nature and significance of the postmodern moment as historical phase and as theoretical field The authors look back on their own contributions to the postmodernism debate of the 1980s and 1990s and address the ways in which the contemporary world and their own concerns have developed and the continuing validity or otherwise of postmodern as a master designator of the contemporary Following a substantial introductory survey the 15 compact articles include contributions from Linda Hutcheon Robert Venturi Zygmunt Bauman Douglas Kellner Arthur and Marilouise Kroker Lawrence Grossberg Gianni Vattimo and Ernesto Laclau The collection provides an important testimonial source for researchers interested in contemporary theoretical developments whether in the arts and humanities or the social sciences It will be a useful text for teachers leading classes with a focus on postwar intellectual history and cultural theory Towards a Critical Sociology of Reading Pedagogy Carolyn D. Baker, Allan Luke, 1991-01-01 Through critical sociological appraisals of literary theory research and pedagogy this volume presents challenges to dominant psychological approaches in reading research and to mainstream discourses about reading and writing pedagogy Bringing together the recent work of literacy researchers in Australia Europe and North America the volume offers novel critiques and theorizations from within political economy neomarxist and critical theory ethnomethodology interactive sociolinguistics poststructuralism and postmodernism The volume is arranged in four sections The Politics of Pedagogy Reading in Classrooms Reconstructing Theory Reading the Social This collection is provocative and innovative offering clear alternatives for conceptualizing literacy for conducting literacy research and for reconstructing the discourses and practices of reading and writing in schools The volume is addressed to a broad audience of
