Bodypolitics Women And The Discourses Of Science:

Body/Politics Mary Jacobus, Evelyn Fox Keller, Sally Shuttleworth, 2013-02-01 Body Politics demonstrates how many of the controversies in modern science involve or invoke the feminine body as their battleground. This groundbreaking collection addresses such scientific issues as artificial fertilization, the crisis in childbirth management and the medical invention of female maladies and the debates surrounding them. In the process it makes an important attempt to remedy the traditional division between science and non-science by focusing on the interconnection of literary, social and scientific discourses concerning the female body. The editors have brought together noted feminist scholars and critics from various fields. Contributors include Susan Bordo, Mary Ann Doane, Donna Haraway, Emily Martin, Mary Poovey and Paula A. Treichler.

The Body Politic, the Bodies of Women, and the Politics of Famine in U.S. Television Coverage of Famine in the Horn of Africa Jo Ellen Fair, 1996 Embodiment and Experience Thomas J. Csordas, 1994-11-17 Students of culture have been increasingly concerned with the ways in which cultural values are inscribed on the body. These essays go beyond this passive construal of the body to a position in which embodiment is understood as the existential condition of cultural life. From this standpoint embodiment is reducible neither to representations of the body to the body as an objectification of power to the body as a physical entity or biological organism nor to the body as an inalienable centre of individual consciousness. This more sensate and dynamic view is applied by the contributors to a variety of topics including the expression of emotion, the experience of pain, ritual healing, dietary customs and political violence. Their purpose is to contribute to a phenomenological theory of culture and self an anthropology that is not merely about the body but from the body.

Women and Science Marilyn B. Ogilvie, Kerry L. Meek, 2018-12-07 First Published in 1996 Following the author's previous work Women in Science: Antiquity through the Nineteenth Century in 1986 an increased interest in feminism, science and gender issues resulted in this subsequent title. This book will be valuable to scholars working in a variety of academic areas and will be useful at different educational levels from secondary through graduate school. This annotated bibliography of approximately 2700 entries also includes fields, nationality, periods, persons, institutions, reference and theme indexes.

Applied Ethics and Human Rights Shashi Motilal, 2011 This collection of papers offers a philosophical perspective including the all important and significant perspective from the point of view of dharma to a host of intricate ethical problems in personal, professional and social life by providing an understanding of the concepts of human rights and responsibilities which are central to those problems.

Encyclopedia of Feminist Literary Theory Elizabeth Kowaleski-Wallace, 2009-03-23 First Published in 1997 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company. The Social Science Encyclopedia Adam Kuper, 1996 This reference has been written by an international team of contributors presenting a global understanding of the key issues within social sciences. A board of advisory editors has worked closely with the editors in determining the most important concepts, thinkers and techniques in each field.

Women, Medicine,

Ethics and the Law Susan Sherwin,Barbara Parish,2020-09-10 This title was first published in 2002 A collection of articles focused on women within a general study of medicine ethics and the law Topics covered include areas where the institutions of medicine ethics and the law intersect in women s reproductive and sexual lives the impact of legal policies and dominant ethical beliefs on many aspects of women s health and the health practices and policies of bioethics and health law The editors recognise that it is important not to lose sight of social differences other than gender such as race ethnicity class age sexuality religion level of physical and mental ability and family relationships In their approach they seek to consider the lives and experiences of women as primary Hence they focus on the question of how women s encounters with the health care system are structured by gender and other socially significant dimensions of their lives rather than the question of how women differ from the male norm
