Place Model within his Good Project Blog which provides a preface to this timely book Professional is a slippery term open to willful abuse misuse and misunderstanding as evidenced by the ways in which this chameleon term can be used as both a compliment and an insult In this book academics from a range of professional fields deconstruct professional and reimagine professionals in an age of rapid change where professionals are both increasingly in demand and frequently under threat Several deploy the lens of Clarke s Place Model to examine professions including teaching midwifery social work journalism and optometry Some papers are empirical and some are based around using the Place Model as a thought experiment All turn a critical eye on professionals and all find them to be like all humans neither devils nor divines Maya Angelou but at their best a combination of two indispensable characteristics trustworthiness and expertise

Journal of Education and School World, 1916 AGS Quarterly, 1999 Women and the Jet Age Phil Tiemeyer, 2025-07-15 Women and the Jet Age is a global history of postwar aviation that examines how states nurtured airlines for competing political and economic goals during the Cold War. While previous histories almost exclusively stress US and Western European aviation progress Phil Tiemeyer examines how smaller poorer states in socialist Eastern Europe and in the postcolonial Global South utilized airlines of their own to forge rival pathways to modernization. Part of this modernization involved norms for working women. Stewardesses at airlines around the globe encountered novel threats to their dignity as the Jet Age approached. By the late 1960s stewardesses endured harsh objectification. High hemlines tight uniforms and raunchy marketing were touted as modern and liberated. These women whether from the West East or South forged their own pathways to achieve greater dignity at work. In Women and the Jet Age Tiemeyer's global account of the rise of air travel and of early feminist strivings among stewardesses is one of the first histories to place such developments political economic and feminist in dialogue with each other Christian Faith and Life, 1908 Truth Seeker, 1925 The World Review, 1929 The Library World, 1958 Northeast Oil World, 1986 Circular, 1872 Pacific Oil World, 1986 Educational Times, 1886 Transactions of the American Gynecological and Obstetrical Society, 2000
