Bose, Paul Tiessen, 2011-11-01 The Colbeck collection was formed over half a century ago by the Bournemouth bookseller Norman Colbeck Focusing primarily on British essayists and poets of the nineteenth century from the Romantic Movement through the Edwardian era the collection features nearly 500 authors and lists over 13 000 works Entries are alphabetically arranged by author with copious notes on the condition and binding of each copy Nine appendices provide listings of selected periodicals series publications anthologies yearbooks and topical works Bell's Cathedrals Philip A. Robson, 2016-09-26 This treatise is little more than a careful digest of numerous works of the more important of which a list is given A sincere note of obligation is due to Messrs Jones and Freeman's scholarly and accurate History of St David's and to Mr John Murray's Handbook to the Welsh Cathedrals but the list is given quite as much to assist future students as to emphasise those writers to whom the author has been under special obligations Those who may wish to visit St David's will find it remarkably inaccessible and they will be well advised to travel to Haverfordwest by train sleep there and drive on over the sixteen miles and seventeen hills to St David's on the next day For cyclists there is a much better road from Letterston station but the other is preferable from the picturesque point of view The illustrations are mostly from the author's own photographs but his special thanks are due to Mr A David and Mr Morgan to whose hearty co-operation on the spot a large meed of whatever success they may attain is unhesitatingly given The general views are from photographs by Valentine Frith and Co and Poulton the general measured drawings are reduced from the elaborate plans of J Taylor Scott F R I B A which won the silver medal of the Royal Institute of British Architects in 1882 a few illustrations are taken from old prints in the author's collection and for some reproductions we have been indebted to the excellent plates in Messrs Jones and Freeman's History of St David's PHILIP A ROBSON     The Art Bulletin ,1920 Includes section Notes and reviews     The National Union Catalog, Pre-1956 Imprints Library of Congress,American Library Association.
