Belsen In History And Memory:

Belsen in History and Memory Joanne Reilly, 1997 This volume presents the most authoritative recent scholarship on Belsen by British American German French and Israeli historians Holocaust Memory and National Museums in Britain Emily-Jayne Stiles, 2021-11-16 This book explores the Holocaust exhibition opened within the Imperial War Museum IWM in 2000 setting out the long and often contentious debates surrounding the conception design and finally the opening of an important exhibition within a national museum in Britain It considers a process of memory making through an assessment of Holocaust photographs material culture and survivor testimonies exploring theories of cultural memory as they apply to the national museum context Anchored in time and place the Holocaust exhibition within Britain's national museum of war is influenced by and reflects an international rise in Holocaust consciousness in the 1990s This book considers the construction of Holocaust memory in 1990s Britain providing a foundation for understanding current and future national memory projects Through all aspects of the display the Holocaust is presented as meaningful in terms of what it says about Nazism and what this in turn says about Britishness From the original debates surrounding the inclusion of a Holocaust gallery at the IWM to the acquisition of Holocaust artefacts that could act as concrete evidence of Nazi barbarity and criminality the Holocaust reaffirms an image of Britain that avoids critical self reflection despite raising uncomfortably close questions The various display elements are brought together to consider multiple strands of the Holocaust story as it is told by national museums in Britain Literature and Justice in Mid-Twentieth-Century Britain Victoria Stewart, 2023 This book examines how ideas about crime and judicial procedure that had developed in a domestic context influenced the representation and understanding of war crimes trials victims of war crimes and war criminals in post WW II Britain The depiction of Belsen concentration camp and the subsequent British run trial are a focal point Conflict Landscapes Nicholas J. Saunders, Paul Cornish, 2021-06-24 Conflict Landscapes explores the long under acknowledged and under investigated aspects of where and how modern conflict landscapes interact and conjoin with pre twentieth century places activities and beliefs as well as with individuals and groups Investigating and understanding the often unpredictable power and legacies of landscapes that have seen and often still viscerally embody the consequences of mass death and destruction the book shows through these landscapes the power of destruction to preserve refocus and often reconfigure the past Responding to the complexity of modern conflict the book offers a coherent integrated and sensitized hybrid approach which calls on different disciplines where they overlap in a shared common terrain Dealing with issues such as memory identity emotion and wellbeing the chapters tease out the human experience of modern conflict and its relationship to landscape Conflict Landscapes will appeal to a wide range of disciplines involved in studying conflict such as archaeology anthropology material culture studies art history cultural history cultural geography military history and heritage and museum studies History, Memory and Mass Atrocity Dan Stone, 2006 The book's main theme is the interpretation of the Holocaust and genocide in historiography philosophy and the contemporary culture of commemoration Running through the essays is an attempt to understand the Holocaust's relationship to modernity the need to find ways of understanding genocide through apparently non rational forms of explanation especially derived from anthropology and the desirability of relating the Holocaust to other instances of genocide The book investigates the ways in which individual thinkers Malinowski Arendt Bataille Perec Ricoeur can help us conceptualise the Holocaust and also deals with many of the major themes of Holocaust and Genocide Studies in recent years problems of handling testimony problems of erecting monuments and museums the representability of the Holocaust through texts photographs monuments and museums the possibility of understanding why individuals take part in genocide and the relationship of the Holocaust to colonial genocide Contains previously inaccessible essays The book is arranged into four sections interpretations of the origins and nature of the Holocaust studies of individual thinkers responses to the Holocaust questions of representation and commemoration and understanding genocide The Palgrave Handbook of Britain and the Holocaust Tom Lawson, Andy Pearce, 2021-01-19 This handbook is the most comprehensive and up to date single volume on the history and memory of the Holocaust in Britain It traces the complex relationship between Britain and the destruction of Europe's Jews from societal and political responses to persecution in the 1930s through formal reactions to war and genocide to works of representation and remembrance in post war Britain Through this process the handbook not only updates existing historiography of Britain and the Holocaust it also adds new dimensions to our understanding by exploring the constant interface and interplay of history and memory The chapters bring together internationally renowned academics and talented younger scholars Collectively they examine a raft of themes and issues concerning the actions of contemporaries to the Holocaust and the responses of those who came after At a time when the Holocaust related activity in Britain proceeds apace the contributors to this handbook highlight the importance of rooting what we know and understand about Britain and the Holocaust in historical actuality This the volume suggests is the only way to respond meaningfully to the challenges posed by the Holocaust and ensure that the memory of it has purpose

History, Memory, and Trans-European Identity Aline Sierp, 2014-06-20 This book questions the presupposition voiced by many historians and political scientists that political experiences in Europe continue to be interpreted in terms of national history and that a European community of remembrance still does not exist By tracing the evolution of specific memory cultures in two successor countries of the Fascist Nazi regime Italy and Germany and the impact of structural changes upon them the book investigates wider democratic processes particularly concerning the conservation and transmission of values and the definition of identity on different levels It argues that the creation of a transnational European memory culture does not necessarily imply the erasure of national and local forms of remembrance It rather means the creation of a further supranational arena where diverging memories can find their expression and can be dealt with in a different way Through the triangulation of agents of memory construction constraints and opportunities and actual portrayals of the past this volume explores the difficulties faced by a multinational entity like the EU in reaching some kind of consensus on such a sensitive subject as history

Between Memory and History Orna Kenan, 2003 Critical study of the Holocaust began late in Israel emerging gradually in the latter part of the 1960s This book examines the link between history and memory in shaping Israel's historiography of the Holocaust period in the two decades immediately following the Holocaust 1945-1961 During that time three groups evolved in Israel as a result of the immediate catastrophic past the professional historians in Eretz Yisrael the Jewish ghetto fighters and partisans and the ordinary survivors These groups were shaped by different experiences and conceptions and although these groups differed radically their interaction within Israel helped shape and construct Israel's consciousness of the Holocaust

The Jewish Travel Guide, 2000 Michael Zaidner, 2000 This guide contains material for Jewish travellers on cities and countries listing synagogues ritual baths shuls Jewish museums kosher restaurants and sites of Jewish interest

ORT, the Second World War and the Rehabilitation of Holocaust Survivors Sarah Kavanaugh, 2008 This book centres on the role played by ORT in the rehabilitation of Holocaust survivors inside the Displaced Persons DP camps after the Second World War A brief history of the ORT organisation is followed by the author highlighting ORT's work during the 1920s and 1930s using Berlin as a case study The important and often life saving work carried out by ORT workers inside the ghettos of Eastern Europe primarily in Warsaw and Kovno is then examined The book then focuses on the liberation of the concentration camps the set up of the post war allied zones of occupation the establishment of the DP camps and ORT's arrival within them The mature period of ORT's work in the DP camps is then covered looking at Belsen in the British zone of occupation and Landsberg in the American zone The book also explores ORT's work in Austria and Italy The final chapter highlights the closure of the DP camps the subsequent immigration of the DPs and the creation of the State of Israel
