

BENJAMIN WEST AND HIS CAT GRIMALKIN

by Marguerite Henry & Wesley Dennis

Chapter 1

BEFORE YOU READ

Introduction

This is a story about a boy named Benjamin West (and of course, his cat.) Benjamin was a real boy from a Quaker family. In addition to learning about him, you may learn a lot about the Quakers, particularly as they lived in Pennsylvania in 1748. (Keep in mind everyone talks, dresses, and lives differently from how people lived 250 years ago - not just Quakers.)

The author has a prologue at the beginning of the book. I recommend you read it after you read the rest of the book.

In this unit study, there are a variety of activities. We will tell you if we think you should do them before or after reading the chapter.

About the Quakers

The last pages provide space to make a list of things you have learned about the Quakers from the 18th century. In Chapter One, make a note of anything you learn about their clothing.

Vocabulary

Here are three terms you will see in the chapter that might be new to you. From the context, see if you can determine which definition goes with which term. Draw a line to the correct definition.

Latch

A lantern made from a cow's horn

Sidelong Glance

A fastener for a door or gate

Lanthorn

To look at someone from the side of your eyes

Dialects

A dialect is a distinct pattern of speech. Authors write different dialects to try to imitate the speech of different people. Notice the author uses words and phrases to reflect the dialect of the German guests and even the cat.

Archaic (Old-fashioned) Terms

The Quakers used these words: "thee," "thou," and "thine." These are words for "you" or "yours" from about 1500. They were used in the King James Bible that was translated in 1511 and are still used by some religious groups.
