Berlin Godehard Janzing:

Figuration/Abstraction Charlotte Benton, 2017-07-05 The notion that the practice of abstraction was confined to Western Europe while a stereotyped form of figuration defined the art of the Eastern bloc continues to dominate art historical accounts of public sculpture of the post war period This book offers a number of alternative readings and demonstrates strategic uses of figuration and abstraction across East and West Encompassing sites of memory including war memorials and Holocaust memorials state civic and corporate sculpture as well as temporary and unexecuted projects the book shows that persuasive advocates of figuration were to be found in the West while in the East imaginative experiments in abstraction were proposed in the name of Social Realism Presenting fresh insights into sculptural practice in the period between 1945 and 1968 this book brings together a wide range of authors some of whom have never before been published in English Their essays are complemented by extracts from documentary texts which give a flavour of contemporary debates and a biographical section includes entries on many sculptors who will be unfamiliar to an English speaking audience

Studia Rosenthaliana ,1999 Aby Warburg 150 David Freedberg, Claudia Wedepohl, 2024-04-01 Aby Warburg is regarded as one of the great pioneers of modern cultural studies This book brings together texts by many of the most renowned researchers in the field who have been influenced by his work They address his extraordinary impact on the understanding of cultural transmission and the influence of images and texts across time and space What emerges is the continuing significance of Warburg for our own times No one concerned with the many forms of the survival of the past in the present and the infinitely complex relationships between images and society will want to miss this book Published in cooperation with the Warburg Institute London and with the assistance of a grant from the Italian Academy for Advanced Studies in America at Columbia University New York Look inside Power and Image in Early Modern Europe Jessica Goethals, Valerie McGuire, Gaoheng Zhang, 2008 Are images and spectacles fundamental mediators of power relationships in the West This book draws upon the language of cultural studies to investigate a contemporary hypothesis in the shifting ideological landscape of early modern Europe Apparently aesthetic choices by artists may also have been the means to consolidate and subvert institutionalized or non institutionalized bodies of power Meanwhile communities in Europe reacted to the intrinsic power of the image in literature and letters commenting upon both its use and abuse Both diachronic and geographic connections are made among disparate but important moments of image making in the twelfth through seventeenth centuries The influence of Descartes is traced from La Rochefoucauld and the communal spectacles of the Ancien Régime salon to the Netherlands and Rembrandt TM s sketch Death of the Virgin Shakespeare bears similar anxieties about Joan of Arc TM s transgression of gender boundaries in Henry VI as does Castiglione TM s Courtier when serving the Renaissance Prince Spenser TM s dilemma about the non difference between fiction and history resolves itself in the same way as does the Byzantine rejection of iconoclasm Other articles in the collection examine anomie in Vatican frescoes by Giorgio Vasari corporeal decay and the supernatural as spectacle on the early modern English stage and affective self perception and subjectivity in the scoring of Italian opera not as just a conference volume but as an organic group of essays on early modernity The essays span an impressive number of cultures from Byzantium to England Italy and Spain to the Netherlands and theorize the image from a number of disciplinary vantage points Not surprisingly art history and theatre are well represented but so are music history and literary studies Most of the essays are short but sufficiently developed to allow for thoughtful arguments on the status of the visual in early modern culture on the stage on the page and as artistic and musical representation they do deliver fine close readings and leave me sufficiently intrigued to want to return to or familiarize myself with the original texts I come away from this collection encouraged about the state of graduate studies in Europe and North America Jane Tylus Professor of Italian and Comparative Literature and Vice Provost for Academic Affairs New York University The essays are interdisciplinary and touch upon many themes that lie outside my own field of specialization I was therefore surprised and pleased to find them not only original and instructive but also inviting and accessible to the non specialist Although they range far with respect to chronology and theoretical suppositions they are coherently united in their concern for the functioning of the image in the conservation revision or critique of socio political power in their respective cultural contexts I will mention three essays representing three different fields as striking examples of disparate images used to consolidate reconstruct or overthrow the dominant powers of their times Kathryn Falzareno s essay Mother s Milk and Deborah s Sword is a close reading of Shakespeare s portrayal of Joan of Arc in Henry VI It is a close analysis of the paradoxical status of Joan Saint of the French strumpet for the English Christian warrior maiden contrasting with Deborah in the Ancient Testament The dominant and totally unexpected image which brings together the contradictions embodied by Joan are the breasts the source of nurture in the figure of Mary but an encumbrance for the mythological amazons who removed one breast to facilitate their use of the bow Ljubica Ilic s Echo and Narcissus Labyrinths of the Self is an elegant reading of echo music the apparently impossible translation of the Ovidian story into music and opera Ovid s story represents the nymph Echo as the auditory equivalent of Narcissus reflection echoing sound as reflecting light Ovid s echo myth undoubtedly influenced opera by Jacopo Peri during the time of the Medici and then Monteverdi in the musical setting of Orfeo Finally Elissa Auerbach s Taking Mary s Pulse Cartesianism and Modernity in Rembrandt s Death of the Virgin is a brilliant commentary on the Dutch painter s rendering of an ancient theme the dormition of the Virgin but at the center of the painting is the figure of a physician taking the pulse of her limp hand The intrusion of this scientific element in the ancient iconography of the event of Mary s death is the unmistakable sign of the wave of modernity that swept over the Netherlands with the popularity of Cartesian philosophy and science John Freccero Professor of Italian and Comp Lit NYU Damage Control Kerry Brougher, Russell Ferguson, Dario Gamboni, 2013 Timely and wide ranging this volume explores in depth the theme of destruction in international contemporary art While destruction as a theme can be traced throughout art history from the early atomic age it has remained a pervasive and compelling element of contemporary visual culture Damage Control features the work of more than 40 international artists working in a range of media painting sculpture photography film installation and performance who have used destruction as a means of responding to their historical moment and as a strategy for inciting spectacle and catharsis as a form of rebellion and protest or as an essential part of re creation and restoration Including works by such diverse artists as Jean Tinguely Andy Warhol Bruce Conner Yoko Ono Gordon Matta Clark Pipilotti Rist Yoshitomo Nara and Laurel Nakadate the book reaches beyond art to enable a broader understanding of culture and society in the aftermath of World War II under the looming fear of annihilation in the atomic age and in the age of terrorism and other disasters real and imagined Kritische Berichte ,2008 Blood James M.
